FROM THE DESK of FR. DAN SHAUGHNESSY, PASTOR

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

“Holy Week, or the seven days starting with Palm Sunday and leading up to Easter Sunday, is the highpoint of the Christian calendar, commemorating the Passion of the Christ. The earliest recorded reference to Christians setting aside this week for special observation dates back to the third century. Jesus’ followers have celebrated the Paschal Mystery for over seventeen hundred years as a way to prepare to meet the risen Lord on Easter morning. Take time out each day to walk the dusty road to Golgotha in preparation for Easter. And in so doing, you will realize there can be no resurrection without crucifixion. It is a journey we too are invited to participate in, as we die to all the attachments, addictions, and identities keeping us from change. To rush past the Cross on our way to the empty tomb is like opening a gift without the heart to embrace it. And as odious as the Cross is, this is where our faith begins: in the cold, dark night of the soul when we dare to believe in the very God who is fully revealed as a suffering servant. May these thoughts enrich your own journey of dying and rising, death and resurrection.

Palm Sunday: Two Kings and Two Kingdoms

Now when they drew near to Jerusalem and came to Bethpage, to the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, saying to them, “Go into the village in front of you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her. Untie them and bring them to me. If anyone says anything to you, you shall say, ‘The Lord needs them,’ and he will send them at once.” The disciples went and did as Jesus had directed them. They brought the donkey and the colt and put on them their cloaks, and he sat on them. Most of the crowd spread their cloaks on the road, and others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road. And the crowds that went before him and that followed him were shouting, “Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!” and when he entered Jerusalem, the whole city was stirred up, saying, “Who is this?” And the crowds said, “This is the prophet Jesus, from Nazareth of Galilee.”

Historians tell us two parades took place that particular spring day in Jerusalem. Two “kings” entered the city representing two very different kingdoms: The Kingdom of God and the kingdoms of this world. Jesus isn’t entering the Holy City as a pilgrim, but as a prophet challenging the unholy union between the religious authorities and State power. He arrives on the scene from the east just as Pilate and his cadre of Roman soldiers enter the city from the west. The two processions couldn’t be more starkly contrasting. Jesus, a peasant from Galilee, rides a lowly donkey and is greeted by the people as a prophet, liberator, a political revolutionary. He is unarmed, but entirely dangerous. Pilate on the other hand, representing the imperial power of the Roman Empire, bursts into Jerusalem in high military fashion, with a column of cavalry, marching soldiers, and a cache of weapons reminding everyone who was really in charge.

Two kings. Two kingdoms. Two radically different visions for the world.

Rejoice greatly, Daughter Zion! Shout, Daughter Jerusalem! See, your king comes to you, righteous and victorious, lowly and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey. I will take away the chariots from Ephraim and the warhorses from Jerusalem, and the battle bow will be broken. He will proclaim peace to the nations. His rule will extend from sea to Seanad from the River to the ends of the earth.

The clash between these two kingdoms has only just begun. The remainder of Holy Week pits the Kingdom of God against the kingdoms of this world, ultimately culminating in Jesus’ death at the hands of the religious leaders and the Roman Empire. Still to this day, the kingdoms of this world trust the power of the sword while the Kingdom of God rests in the power of the cross.”

Have a blessed Holy Week.

Yours in Christ,

March 28, 2023

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The annual Archbishop's Collection for Retired Priests will be taken up in parishes throughout the Archdiocese of St. Louis on Easter Sunday, April 9, 2023.

This is a beautiful opportunity to honor the vibrant legacy of priests who have dedicated their lives to serving others and who inspire our current and future priests.

We can count on our parish priests to instruct us in the faith, counsel us in difficult times, help us celebrate joyful moments, and comfort us in our grief. Indeed, many retired priests continue serving in parishes, schools, nursing homes, hospitals, and other Catholic ministries. They celebrate Mass, assist with Reconciliation, visit the sick, and serve as spiritual leaders.

Your gift helps assure our priests receive the essential care they need, including physician services, hospitalization, nursing home care, vision care, and disability. I encourage you to be generous!

Be assured that our retired priests are praying for you and your families. I hope you will pray for them as well.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Mitchell T. Rozanski
Archbishop of St. Louis

ARCHDIOCESAN LENTEN REGULATIONS

Good Friday (April 7, 2023) is a day of abstinence (refraining from meat) for all Catholics from age 14 onwards. Fast, as well as abstinence, is also obligatory for those from the ages of 18-59. Abstinence means refraining from meat. Fast means one full meal a day, with two smaller meals and nothing between meals (liquids are permitted). No Catholic will lightly excuse himself or herself from this obligation.

PARISH AMBASSADOR NEWS

St. Patrick Center is a ministry of Catholic Charities that focuses on transforming lives by helping those in need to secure sustainable housing, employment, and healthcare for people who are homeless or at risk of becoming homeless.

For 35 years, St. Patrick Center has quietly operated a program for a group of clients needing the most care: women struggling with homelessness, mental illness, and substance abuse. The Women's Night Program (WNP), consisting of a day treatment and overnight care, has guided hundreds of women to reach their goals and live in permanent, supportive housing.

If you or your group are interested in preparing dinner for the WNP, please contact your Parish Ambassador Michaela Rodriguez at michaelamrodriguez@gmail.com.
