FROM THE DESK of FR. DAN SHAUGHNESSY, PASTOR

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

How on earth is it already Christmas? With that said, part of what I want to stress to you is that it has not been Christmas, until today; up until today, we have been prayerfully celebrating Advent, as we await the birth of our Infant King. Even though the retail industry, in general, and all of the bricks and mortar stores started setting up for Christmas right after Halloween, Christmas begins today, as we begin the Octave of Christmas, the eight days of Christmas.

How should we celebrate? What should we do? I did a little praying and thinking and research and I share some fun ideas below so that you and yours can celebrate Christmas more fully maybe, than in years past. Who knows? Maybe some of these ideas will become an annual tradition for your family.

Pray before the baby Jesus.

“No one, whether shepherd or wise man, can approach God here below except by kneeling before the manger at Bethlehem and adoring him hidden in the weakness of a newborn child.” So says the Catechism of the Catholic Church (#563). Encourage your kids to imitate the shepherds and wise men by kneeling before the baby Jesus in the nativity scene at your church or at your home, either after Christmas Mass or right away on Christmas morning, before opening gifts. You can encourage your kids to make up their own prayer.

Do more works of mercy!

The message of the Gospel and the call of the Church is unambiguous: fully celebrating Christmas means reaching out to the poor, the oppressed, and all those in need of our help. Model the true spirit of Christmas for your kids by seeking out opportunities to help others throughout the whole Christmas season.

- Pray for Christians being persecuted around the world.

- Give away things you do not need (and maybe some things that others might need more than you), and renew your commitment to Christian stewardship and simple living.
- Consider year-end gifts to charitable organizations that help those in need; let your kids help choose a recipient. Better yet, pool your money as a family and decide to give it to a family or organization in your community.
- Donate goods to your local food shelf, St. Vincent de Paul Society or other charity. Make it a family field trip.

Celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family.

The Feast of the Holy Family follows quickly on the heels of Christmas, this year on December 31, 2023. You can use the occasion to celebrate your own family by making a very simple “family tree” with photos of each person. Talk with younger children about what it means to be a family. Include the date of your wedding anniversary as the “birthday” of your family.

Bless your home and household on Epiphany.

It is traditional to bless your home and household on the Feast of the Epiphany, perhaps because of the Biblical reference to the three kings entering the home where the Holy Family was staying in order to worship the Christ child there. You can find an Epiphany blessing of the home at the USCCB website (<https://www.usccb.org/prayers/blessing-home-and-household-epiphany>).

A more traditional form of the Epiphany blessing involves using blessed chalk to write the letters C, M, and B, plus the year, above the main entrance to the home (or above the door to each room in the house), like so: 20 + C + M + B + 24. The letters are the initials of the traditional names of the three magi: Caspar, Melchior, and Balthazar. They also represent the Latin words Christus mansionem benedicat, which means: “May Christ bless the house.” Of course, the + represents the cross.

Hold a procession of the Magi.

On the Feast of the Epiphany, read the Gospel account of the visit of the three wise men (see Matthew 2:1-12), then have your children march through the house holding the figures of the three kings and singing “We Three Kings.”

Celebrate the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord.

The Feast of the Baptism of the Lord falls on January 7, 2024 this year and officially marks the end of the Christmas season and the beginning of Jesus’ public ministry. It’s also the perfect time to remember your kids’ baptisms, and to talk about what that means: “Did you know you were baptized, too, just like Jesus?” Tell the story of your child’s baptism. What was the most memorable moment? Why did you ask to have your child baptized? What promises did you have to make?

May Almighty God bless you all. Praying that you really take the time to enjoy the many graces of the Christmas season!

Fourth Sunday of Advent

Imagine how Mary felt at the birth of Jesus: excited, awed, frightened. Deep faith was her light in the darkness, for Jesus was born during the night at a point of the year when darkness is the longest. Your gifts to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul brought light into the darkness for those living in poverty, bringing them the real, lasting, and everlasting joy of Christmas.

Marianist Retreat and Conference Center

Losing a loved one to suicide or any tragic death is a pain that no one can prepare for. The roller coaster of emotions is enough to make one doubt God's presence in the situation. This day of reflection is designed to help in the journey through these emotions and come out renewed with confidence in God's love and care for each one of us. Members of our ministry team for this day will include Father Tom Miller (pastor of Our Lady Queen of Peace and St. Anthony Parishes), Deacon Rob Lawson (Incarnate Word Parish), Adam Bitter (Incarnate Word Parish), and the Jonah Prayer Teams from Incarnate Word, St. Alban Roe, and St. Anthony of Padua Parishes. There will be time for healing prayer, discussions, sharing, techniques for healthy outlet of emotions, and testimony from those who have healed from the same pain you may be feeling.

Attendance will be limited to 100 participants total for Saturday, 9 am - 7 pm and include two meals for $65. We are also offering the option for up to 45 participants to spend the night through 10 am on Sunday which includes a private room and breakfast for $155.
