FROM THE DESK of FR. DAN SHAUGHNESSY, PASTOR

Dear St. Joseph Parish
Community,

From the 5th Chapter of the Gospel of Matthew for this weekend's readings for Mass,
the following verses opens the passage: "Jesus said to his disciples:

Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets. I have come not to abolish but to fulfill. Amen, I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not the smallest letter or the smallest part of a letter will pass from the law, until all things have taken place.

Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do so will be called least in the kingdom of heaven.

But whoever obeys and teaches these commandments will be called greatest in the kingdom of heaven."

As your pastor and spiritual father, I struggle greatly with how hard to press our parish families with the Ten Commandments (the rules), so to speak.

That said, the 3rd Commandment is to "remember to keep holy the Sabbath Day." Simply, not attending Sunday Mass (keeping holy the Sabbath) is a violation of that commandment and hence, a sin. People don't like to talk about sin in our increasingly secularized culture. And as your pastor, I have to say that it's difficult sometimes to be fatherly in this manner. Sometimes, in my own insecurity, I might like parishioners to think that Fr. Shaughnessy is "cool" or "chill," so to speak (implying that I won't challenge as strongly as I should with regard to Sunday Mass). If that is the case or the perception, then I am failing at my job/vocation as a priest.

I love so very much that you are all so kind to me and that you support Fr. Ruzicka and me. But naturally I did not become a priest to win a popularity contest. Hence, I have to challenge those of you who do not make Sunday Mass a priority.

Many of you might say, "Well, the Archbishop gave us dispensation for 16 months during Covid so attending Mass mustn't be that big of a deal." It is true that the bishops across the country did just that. And I'll say that in hindsight (from my perspective as an armchair quarterback), that decision was a horrible mistake. And we will be dealing with the consequences of it for a very long time. That said, it makes me incredibly sad that not everyone in our parish family is necessarily coming together to pray and worship Almighty God. Frankly, it's devastating to me. If we can go on vacations; if we can attend sporting events of all kinds; if we can go out for dinner; if we can attend play dates; if we can go to the grocery store ... if we can do all these things and yet we don't have time 1 hour a week to spend thanking God for all of our gifts and blessings and receive Jesus Himself in the Eucharist, then what are we doing?

As I watch my parents, especially my mother, declining in her health as she prepares to meet Jesus when she dies, I think of her devotion to Jesus, to our Blessed Mother and to the Communion of Saints. Coupled with the strong and sometimes stern leadership of my own Dad, Sunday Mass as a family was never an option. It was always the MOST important thing. I truly believe that my parents' prayers and example ushered me into the seminary. I truly believe that I was always called to be a priest from the very first moment of my existence but my folks helped get across the finish line, so to speak. And now, in their advanced age, they chose a senior living facility that offers Daily Mass because the Eucharist, Jesus Christ Himself, is the most important thing to them.

And rightly so. Please know that I am so proud of this incredible parish community that I am so blessed to lead. And please know that it is with great humility that I share this message. We are doing so well as a parish community in so many ways. But it has been on my heart for several weeks to share this message with all of you.

We will soon be heading into Lent. Ash Wednesday is February 22nd. Might we all truly embrace our call as followers of Jesus Christ to attend Mass together as a parish family. For those of you receiving this letter who might not be Catholic, I'd encourage you to attend your respective places of worship on Sundays. For those of you who are faithful to Sunday Mass and the sacraments, please share the letter with a fallen-away friend, neighbor, family member, or coworker.

May we all be one Body in Christ. May we pray together and for each other unceasingly! May we all spend Eternal life together forever in Heaven, when Jesus calls us home.

Humbly and respectfully in Christ Jesus,

ARCHDIOCESAN LENTEN REGULATIONS

"For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him."

(John 3:16-17)

The Church has always helped us fulfill these words of Jesus by prescribing very definite penance for all Catholics, so that we too might have Eternal life. Accordingly, the Pope and the American Bishops have outlined obligatory fast and abstinence as follows: Ash Wednesday (February 22, 2023), all Fridays of Lent and Good Friday (April 7, 2023) are days of abstinence (refraining from meat) for all Catholics from age 14 onwards. On these two days, fast, as well as abstinence, is also obligatory for those from the ages of 18-59. Abstinence means refraining from meat. Fast means one full meal a day, with two smaller meals and nothing between meals (liquids are permitted). No Catholic will lightly excuse himself or herself from this obligation.

Feast of Saint Patrick (March 17, 2023) falls on a Friday during Lent this year. Feasts of the Church are meant to be a day of celebration and rejoicing, so on this Friday, March 17, 2023, the faithful of the Archdiocese of St. Louis are dispensed from abstaining from meat should they choose to celebrate the Feast of Saint Patrick.

40 DAYS FOR LIFE CAMPAIGN

Thursday, March 2

While abortion is no longer legal in Missouri, according to the Illinois Department of Public Health (<https://dph.illinois.gov/data-statistics/vital-statistics/abortion-statistics.html>), we know that in 2020, over 6,500 Missouri women obtained an abortion in the state of Illinois out of a total of over 46,000 abortions in that state. Your peaceful, prayerful presence at Planned Parenthood in Fairview Heights, IL, is needed now more than ever to encourage abortion-seeking women to choose LIFE. Join fellow St. Joseph parishioners on Thursday, March 2, between 7 am and 7 pm at the Planned Parenthood facility in Fairview Heights, IL. To ensure there are at least 2 prayer volunteers per hour, please contact Kelly Lehn with your time(s) at 314-608-9866 or kalehn@yahoo.com. Sign ups will also be after all Masses the weekend of February 25/26.
