FROM THE DESK of
FR. DAN SHAUGHNESSY, PASTOR

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In meditating on the beginning of the liturgical year and the Baptism of the Lord, we might fairly ask, “Why was Jesus baptized?” To answer that question, I came across a beautiful reflection by a brother priest:

For more than two weeks we have celebrated Jesus as an infant. Now once again we begin celebrating Jesus as an adult and appropriately we begin with Jesus’ first public appearance as an adult, his baptism by John the Baptist in the river Jordan. Perhaps we wonder why Jesus requested John to baptize him. Jesus did not have any sins to repent of and the baptism offered by John the Baptist was for repentance of sins (Luke 3:3). When sinners went to John at the river Jordan, they did so because they acknowledged their sinfulness and their baptism symbolized turning over a new leaf in their lives and leaving sin behind. Jesus, although like us in every way, was without sin, as the Letter to the Hebrews assures us (Heb 4:15). That explains why John the Baptist objected to Jesus’ request for baptism in the Gospel of Matthew: “I need to be baptized by you, and yet you are coming to me?” (Matt 3:14). The answer Jesus gave John helps us to understand why Jesus wanted to be baptized: “Allow it now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness.” (Matt 3:15) “To fulfill all righteousness” is why Jesus wanted to be baptized. We might say it is difficult to understand this answer because Jesus was not lacking in righteousness and was already righteous. So how could his baptism fulfill all righteousness? (I will draw on Pope Benedict’s book Jesus of Nazareth: From the Baptism in the Jordan to the Transfiguration pp 17-23 to help us to answer this question.) Sinless Jesus did not have any sins of his own to take down into the river Jordan, therefore it could only have been our sins that he took down into the river Jordan. Naturally no one would understand this at that time, but they would realize this later when they understood that Jesus died on the cross for our sins. So, Jesus’ baptism in the Jordan and his dying on the cross go together; he did both for our sins. He took our sins on his shoulders as he went down into the Jordan and as he died on the cross.

(https://www.frtommylane.com/homilies/years_abc/baptism_of_our_lord)

The Baptism of our Lord goes hand in hand with the Passion, Death and Resurrection of Jesus. We can see the tapestry of God’s love as we look back on all of His incredible acts of magnanimous generosity.

Happy New Year!

Yours in Christ,

Sr. Christine’s Food Pantry Thanks You!

While most take a STEP BACK in dismay at the human conditions that cause a lack of food, YOU have STEPPED UP to not just provide food but point the way forward. THANK YOU! Despite feeling a need to reduce expenditures during these times, YOU have found ways to maintain or even increase your financial help. THANK YOU! Your gifts allow dozens of volunteers to touch individual lives as our parish food pantry provides a balanced food supply to well over 100 souls each week. These recipients are hardworking individuals and elderly neighbors who have encountered a documented financial strain that could lead to hunger. You may never meet these souls in this lifetime, but please know that they thank YOU each and every week. And your parish clergy, staff, and volunteers THANK YOU! The St. Joseph Parish community sure knows what it means to live Christ’s Kingdom here and now!

Safe Environment Program: Registration Required

Protecting God's Children | For All Employees and Volunteers

St. Joseph Parish follows the Safe Environment Program of the Archdiocese of St. Louis. In 2020, the Archdiocese of St. Louis developed a system for safe environment compliance called Prevent and Protect STL. Everyone (clergy, employees, and volunteers ministering to minors and vulnerable adults in the Archdiocese is required to register in this system. For those who have already attended a Protecting God's Children workshop, your previous training date will transfer to this system. In addition to attending a live Protecting God's Children workshop, all clergy, volunteers, and employees will register for an updated background screening, view the two new online training modules on abuse reporting, and agree to the updated Code of Ethical Conduct. Please go to <https://sjiparish.org/safe-environment> for instructions on how to register. If you have any questions, contact Mary Truetken by email at mtruetken@sjiparish.org or by phone at 636-464-1013 Ext. 109.

Feeding And Inspiring The Homeless

This winter, the Knights of Columbus are collecting food items to be assembled into breakfast bags for St. Patrick Center and would like to welcome the parish in helping us collect the food items to place in the bags. Inspiring messages of hope will be provided with each bag as well. Suggested items include granola bars, breakfast bars, fruit cups, prepackaged muffins, toaster pastries, cereal variety packs, juice boxes and water. Boxes for collecting items will be placed in the vestibule. Please bring in items no later than Sunday February 19th.

Faith in Action

A MINISTRY OF THE  ARCHDIOCESE OF ST. LOUIS

RESPECT LIFE APOSTOLATE

On January 3, Missouri performed its first execution of 2023 when the state took the life of Amber (formerly Scott) McLaughlin. The execution was carried out despite petitions containing thousands of signatures from multiple countries imploring the Missouri governor to grant McLaughlin clemency.

McLaughlin's case is only the start of the executions scheduled to be carried out in the state this year. Missouri's next scheduled execution is set for February 7 when, barring a grant of clemency by the governor, the state will execute Leonard Taylor. Though Taylor is currently the only Missouri death row inmate with an execution date scheduled, there is a substantial likelihood that more execution dates will be scheduled this year.

The Catholic Church opposes the death penalty because it disregards the inherent sanctity and dignity of human life and denies the individual the chance for repentance and conversion of heart. You can call Governor Mike Parson's office at (573) 751-3222 or you can email him at <https://governor.mo.gov/contact-us/mo-governor> to request clemency for Missouri's death row inmates.

2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Over 125,000 households in our state suffer from very low food security, cutting or skipping meals in an attempt to pay other bills. In the Gospel after Jesus was baptized, John testified saying, "I saw the Spirit come down like a dove...and remain upon him."

When the Holy Spirit is nudging us to be Christ-like in our care for others, do we embrace that Spirit so It remains upon us?

World Marriage Day

On Sunday, February 12, 2023, at 2:30 pm., Auxiliary Bishop Mark S. Rivituso will celebrate a Mass for World Marriage Day at the Cathedral Basilica of St. Louis, 4431 Lindell Blvd. St. Louis, MO. A reception will follow in Boland Hall. All married couples are invited to attend and celebrate the gift of marriage. World Marriage Day honors husband and wife as the foundation of the family – the basic unit of society. It emphasizes the faithfulness, sacrifice and joy of daily married life. World Marriage Day started in Baton Rouge, LA in 1981 and was later adopted by Worldwide Marriage Encounter who now is sponsoring this event on February 12th.

Special Thanks to Our Electronic Givers

We would like to thank the families who are currently giving electronically. You may not see these fellow parishioners place an envelope in the basket every week, but their consistent giving does not go unnoticed in our parish office. Each month our parish receives a steady and predictable stream of income from those donors who have made the commitment to give to God first by having a designated contribution automatically transferred to our parish through our Online Giving Program. If you would like to sign up for this easy, safe, and secure way of giving, please visit our online giving site at:
