From the Desk of Fr. Dan Shaughnessy, Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As we start the new year, it's important for me as your pastor to address the Declaration from the Vatican entitled Fiducia Supplicans, "On the Pastoral Meaning of Blessings". There has been a great deal of confusion, as the press has mis-characterized the document. No big surprise there.

And so, as your pastor, in my own search for clarity, to clearly understand the document so I can guide the parish, I came across a very clear and concise response from Bishop Robert Barron, Bishop of Winona-Rochester, Minnesota, who also happens to serve as Chairman of the United States Council of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) Committee on Laity, Marriage, Family Life, and Youth.

The USCCB released the following statement:

"WASHINGTON – The document released this week by the Vatican on the pastoral meaning of blessings insists that marriage is a union of one man and one woman in lifelong fidelity and openness to children, said Bishop Robert Barron of Winona-Rochester. Following the publication of Fiducia Supplicans by the Vatican's Dicastery for the Doctrine of the Faith, the chairman of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops' (USCCB) Committee on Laity, Marriage, Family Life, and Youth, addressed questions and concerns that have emerged. "In my capacity as chairman of the USCCB Committee on Laity, Marriage, Family Life, and Youth, I would like to respond to some of the questions and concerns that have emerged in the wake of the publication of the Vatican document, Fiducia Supplicans. The statement in no way calls for a change in the Church's teaching regarding marriage and sexuality. In fact, it goes to great lengths to insist that, in accord with unchanging doctrine, marriage is a union of one man and one woman in lifelong fidelity and openness to children.

"The blessings that it allows for those in irregular relationships are not liturgical in nature and hence do not imply any approbation of such relationships. Rather, these benedictions are informal and spontaneous, designed to call upon God's mercy to heal, guide, and strengthen. Despite some misleading coverage in the press, the declaration does not constitute a 'step' toward ratification of same-sex marriage nor a compromising of the Church's teaching regarding those in irregular relationships.

"Fiducia Supplicans is very much congruent with Pope Francis's long-held conviction that those who do not live up to the full demand of the Church's moral teaching are nevertheless loved and cherished by God and invited to accept the Lord's offer of forgiveness." <https://www.usccb.org/news/2023/bishop-barron-says-new-vatican-document-affirms-churchs-timeless-teaching-marriage>

In closing, I simply felt that it was very important to offer clarity to all of the confusion in the media. As stated by the Catechism of the Catholic Church in Chapter 3, Article 7, marriage is a procreative and unitive bond between a woman and man, according to God's design. The definition of marriage cannot be changed, because it is reflective of God's immutable design for the human person.

May God bless you all abundantly!

Devotedly yours in Christ,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Fr. Dan Shaughnessy". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

TODAY & TOMORROW
Inspiring the Future - One Child at a Time

With the recent relocation of the Pre-K3 and Junior Kindergarten classrooms to the Little Friends of St. Joseph building, we now have availability in Junior Kindergarten, which is the grade level for four-year-olds. Please note that in order for a child to begin Kindergarten in August 2024, he or she must be 5 years old by August 1st. Any student who does not turn 5 by August 1st may repeat Junior Kindergarten in the 24-25 year in anticipation of beginning Kindergarten in August of 2025.

Please contact Beth Zenhari, Admissions & Marketing Coordinator, at benhari@stjosephimperial.org or 636-464-9027 x408, for more information.

Epiphany of the Lord

Today we celebrate the feast of Epiphany, where the Magi find the newborn king and offer him gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh. Join the humble spirit of the Magi by giving of yourself to the work of Vincent de Paul. There's a great joy in being one with the Epiphany of the Lord to the needy in our community.

Thank You

Christmas 2023 is now history. Your generosity provided gift cards for 41 families, a total of 107 children. Nine seniors were also blessed.

Thanks to all those who took ornaments off the tree, and to those who adopted a family. Without your kindness the Giving Tree could not exist. Also we would like to thank everyone who helped out in any way. Your time and talents are much appreciated.

We hope everyone had a Blessed Christmas, and wish you all a happy and healthy 2024.

Until next year... The Giving Tree Committee

PARISH AMBASSADOR NEWS

Catholic Charities of St. Louis brings the healing, help, and hope of Jesus Christ to those in need with a compassionate and caring presence.

St. Patrick Center is a ministry of Catholic Charities that transforms lives by helping those who are homeless or at risk of becoming homeless access sustainable housing, employment, and healthcare. St. Patrick Center has volunteer opportunities and ways to get involved.

If you are interested, please contact Parish Ambassador Rachel Schoenberger at rschoenberger@sjiparish.org

*The poinsettias on the Christmas altar were donated in memory of the following people.
May we remember them and their loved ones in our prayers.*

Marianist Retreat and Conference Center

Losing a loved one to suicide or any tragic death is a pain that no one can prepare for. The roller coaster of emotions is enough to make one doubt God's presence in the situation. This day of reflection is designed to help in the journey through these emotions and come out renewed with confidence in God's love and care for each one of us. Members of our ministry team for this day will include Father Tom Miller (pastor of Our Lady Queen of Peace and St. Anthony Parishes), Deacon Rob Lawson (Incarnate Word Parish), Adam Bitter (Incarnate Word Parish), and the Jonah Prayer Teams from Incarnate Word, St. Alban Roe, and St. Anthony of Padua Parishes. There will be time for healing prayer, discussions, sharing, techniques for healthy outlet of emotions, and testimony from those who have healed from the same pain you may be feeling.

Attendance will be limited to 100 participants total for Saturday, 9 am - 7 pm and include two meals for $65. We are also offering the option for up to 45 participants to spend the night through 10 am on Sunday which includes a private room and breakfast for $155. For more information, Barb @ 314.910.3942, Mary @ 314.210.5098 or Shelby @ 636.288.9841
