From the Desk of Fr. Dan Shaughnessy

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We are living in historic times. In response to the overturning of Roe v. Wade on June 24, 2022, the parish is establishing the St. Joseph Parish Crisis Care Line. As I referenced in last week's column, we as a Catholic Christian community must work harder than ever before to support unborn children, their mothers and fathers, and all families. Every Catholic parish must ensure that women who are facing a crisis pregnancy have real and unwavering support from their communities of faith. We must make sure that adoption is a real and viable option; we must support domestic violence shelters for women and children; we must support programs and outreach for those who need assistance, providing solid postnatal care, etc.

As a result, the soon-to-be-established SJP Crisis Care Line will provide immediate consultation and services to anyone who needs support with an unplanned pregnancy, reproductive loss, or parenting resources.

The Mission of the SJP Crisis Care Line will follow the words Matthew 1:24, following the example of St. Joseph. "When Joseph awoke, he did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him and took his wife into his home." So too, the SJP Crisis Care Line will welcome those who are struggling into our home, the Church, for help.

Once established, this initiative will provide ways to communicate with the crisis care team directly. They will offer resources already readily available in our parish and the community, accompany them as needed, and request further assistance from the parish for resource gaps outside of the scope available. The SJP Crisis Care Line will be available 24/7 for pregnancy help, reproductive loss healing or parenting assistance with the vision of preserving and restoring families by deescalating crisis situations and supporting mothers and fathers in need with tangible and intangible support. May no one in our parish or community feel as though abortion is their only option. No one walks alone.

Crisis Care Team Director: Michaela Rodriguez

Direct Parish Resources: Sr. Christine's Food Pantry and the St. Vincent DePaul Society at St. Joseph Parish, and the agencies of Catholic Charities St. Louis

Know that in the past, the parish has done much of this work quietly and with little fanfare, so to speak. In light of Roe v. Wade being overturned, it became very clear that the time was right to take the services of the parish to a higher level than before.

Stay tuned for further details as they become available.

Let's all continue to pray for a culture of life.

Yours in Christ,

AN INVITATION FROM RCIA

Have you been considering becoming a member of the Catholic Church and aren't sure what to do? We'd like to invite you to explore this option by considering the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA). RCIA is the process in which adults enter the Catholic Church, or possibly return if they've been away for a long time and may not have received their First Communion and/or been confirmed. If you are interested in becoming Catholic or returning to the practice of your Catholic faith please contact Sr. Rosemary Buttice, ASCJ, at (636) 464-1013 ext. 106 or email at rbuttice@sjiparish.org. Also, if you know someone who may be interested in RCIA, please invite him/her to the Inquiry sessions or have them call Sr. Rosemary.

The Inquiry sessions to help answer your questions will be held on Monday, August 8 and Wednesday, August 10 at 7:00 p.m. in the Corpus Christi Center Gathering Space. We look forward to meeting you.

Grief Support Group

Our next Grief Support Group meeting will be Thursday, July 14th and August 11th from 6-7 pm in the Corpus Christi Center. If you would like to be added to the Grief Support Group email list, please contact amy.neu1@gmail.com.

Prime Timers

Our next Prime Timers meeting will be on July 20th at 12:30pm in the Corpus Christi Center. Please join us if you are one of our contemporaries, age 55 or over! We look forward to sharing a warm welcome! Any questions please call Lorraine Simms at (636) 333-2855.

Dynamic Catholic

Did you ever notice that the scholars of the law, the Pharisees and the Sadducees always tried to make things complicated in order to test Jesus? Whenever they did this, what did Jesus do? He asked them a question, told them a simple story or gave them a simple answer. For instance, in today's Gospel reading a scholar asked Jesus how he could receive eternal life. Jesus answered, "What is written in the law?" This was a simple question for the scholar to answer correctly himself and he did. When the scholar tried to complicate it more by asking who is my neighbor, Jesus shared the story of the Good Samaritan. Many times in our lives we do the same thing as this scholar. We make things complicated without even realizing it and we search for answers that are really right in front of our faces. We search for answers from Jesus that He has really already answered for us but we missed it because we were looking for a complicated answer. As Moses shared with the Israelites in the first reading, "this command that I enjoin on you today is not too mysterious or remote for you." This week would be a great time for us to reflect on the questions, "For what answers am I searching?" and "Has Jesus already answered it and I missed it?"

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL
July 10, 2022
That we may strive to be more like the Good Samaritan, helping those in need, without expecting anything in return.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

In today's Gospel, when Jesus asks "which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers' victim?" the scholar of the law answered, "the one who treated him with mercy." Jesus then said, "Go and do likewise." This week you can also "treat the poor with mercy" by contributing towards the needs of our neighbors.

VISITING MISSIONARY Fr. Gabriel Eduardo Romanelli

Fr. Gabriel Eduardo Romanelli, IVE will be visiting our parish July 16-17, 2022, for the Mission Appeal program. He will be leading our masses for the following Mass schedule: Saturday at 4:30 pm and Sunday for all masses 7:00 am. 8:30 am. 10:00 am. 11:30 am. 4:30 pm.

The Mission Appeal program of the Institute of the Incarnate Word (IVE) uses funds collected for the day-to-day support for missionaries, to supply materials goods, to finish projects, and to meet the basic needs in rural areas where missionaries are working. The children, the elderly, the sick, the poor, the abandoned, the handicapped, and the suffering will benefit from the contributions made for the betterment of humanity. Your support funds the basic needs such as food and medicine, pastoral works, vehicles to arrive to remote rural areas where there are no roads. Your funds also help to build seminaries and churches, to provide hope where the Catholic faith is a minority or does not exist at all. For more information on the missionary program, you are warmly welcome to review this website: www.iveamerica.org.

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 10, 2022—15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Jesus said to him, ‘Go and do likewise.’” LUKE 10:37

This was Jesus’ command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. Did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other? The moral of the story is to love our neighbor. That means loving someone you may not know, or someone that looks different than you, or someone that has different beliefs than you, or someone that you don’t like. All without expecting anything in return.

Themes in the Gospel of St. Luke

Presenter: Mark Etling, Ph.D.
Saturdays, July 9, 16, 23, 10 a.m. – 12 Noon

Each of the four Gospels focuses on different aspects of Jesus' ministry and teaching. The Gospel of Luke is known as the Gospel of the Poor, the Gospel of Women and the Gospel of the Holy Spirit. Why did Luke choose to highlight the importance of poor people and women, when both were considered inferior and on the margins of society?

Why is so much more importance attached to the Holy Spirit in Luke and the Acts of the Apostles than the other Gospels? Join us as we discuss these important themes in the Gospel of Luke.

Cost: $30 for series; $10 per session
