OUR PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

As Catholics in the Archdiocese of Saint Louis under the patronage of Saint Joseph, in communion with our Holy Father, Pope Francis, and Archbishop Rozanski, we are called by our Lord Jesus Christ to be His Church and live His Gospel. With joy, we strive to fulfill our Baptismal calling by fervent prayer and worship, sound teaching and sharing our faith, serving others and fostering unity in diversity. Guided by the Holy Spirit, we commit ourselves to be responsible stewards of all God's gifts.

If you have been inactive in the practice of your Catholic Faith, we encourage you to come home. If you would like to speak with someone please do not hesitate to contact us.

If a previous marriage has kept you from receiving the Sacraments, we invite you to contact one of the priests. In many cases we can work with you toward a favorable solution so you can again receive the Sacraments in the Catholic Church.

An Invitation from Sacred Heart of Crystal City

Pastor's Column

Dear St. Joseph Parish family,

When I was on retreat this past week, my spiritual director encouraged me to read and pray with the book, I Believe in Love: A personal retreat based on the teachings of St. Therese of Lisieux, by Fr. Jean C. J. D'Elbee. The book is a favorite of mine so I happily complied. One passage from the book hit me like a truck, so to speak, as I pondered the magnitude and availability of God's mercy for all of us, especially those whom we might deem irreparable. In reality, in my estimation, at least, those are the ones the Lord Jesus is constantly longing for and seeking. They might be our family members, our neighbors, our friends; might we encourage them with the meditation below?

"The good thief (also) teaches us humility and confidence. A whole life of crimes, a whole life of sin: a few minutes before dying, one word of humility and confidence, and he is saved.

In the same way as the prodigal son recognized his guilt, the good thief, speaking to his companion, cries, 'For us, this is justice; we have received what we deserve.' Then he looks into the eyes of Jesus and reads there who He is: the gentle Savior.

'Lord, remember me when You shall come into your kingdom.'

And the ineffable answer is, 'Amen, I say to you, this day you shall be with me in Paradise.' For you, no Hell, not a second of Purgatory. The confidence look you gave me, this meeting of our eyes, in my mercy and in your faith, has purified you in an instant and rendered us inseparable. Now you are completely pure and already in Heaven.

A whole life of sin, one humble and confident look toward the Crucified, and there was the first canonized saint, and canonized by Jesus Himself!"

Might we all begin to grasp this love of God, not just for others but for ourselves.

Have a blessed week!

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Dan Shaughnessy

THE BIBLE COLLECTION - PAUL THE APOSTLE

We are celebrating a feast day, consecrated for us by the blood of the apostles. Let us love their faith, their lives, their labours, their sufferings, their confession of faith, their preaching. This week we celebrate the Solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul, each of whom spread the Gospel to the nations in the earliest days of the Church. In honor of Paul, the Apostle of the Gentiles, enjoy this film the Bible Collection!

Dynamic Catholic, Alive! 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time—True Freedom!

Our culture teaches us that freedom is the ability to do anything we want. Companies even use slogans like “Be fearless, Be limitless” “Just do it” etc. Scripture teaches us that true freedom doesn’t mean we have the freedom to do anything we want, because that includes sin. Scripture tells us true freedom means being free from sin. Paul explains in today’s reading to the Galatians, “Brothers and sisters For freedom Christ set us free; so stand firm and do not submit again to the yoke of slavery.” Paul is clear in his message to us that some of our actions or decisions can actually take away our freedom. For instance, when someone hurts us in some way and we refuse to forgive them, we are slaves to our anger, frustration, and unforgiveness. Many of us find ourselves confessing the same sin over and over. Even though we receive absolution we can still be slaves to that sin. This week we can take some time to use a Bible Concordance to search for the word freedom and read the passages, so we can come to a better understanding of what true freedom really is. We could also take some time to pray and examine our consciences to discover if there is anything in our lives that is holding us back from achieving true freedom.
