FROM THE DESK of FR. DAN SHAUGHNESSY, PASTOR

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Negativity is toxic. It weighs people down. It rents space in people's heads, as I often like to say. That said, enter St. Therese!

Although St. Therese of Lisieux has a reputation for being quiet and unassuming, she was quite adept and gentle in dealing with difficult people, so well in fact that they often thought she favored them.

We all have toxic people in our lives — those with whom we simply don't get along, or who seem to be out to get us, or really rub us the wrong way. There's always that person who causes a shudder to roll down your spine when you discover they're going to be at the same party, or who, when passing them in the hallway, causes you to suddenly pull out your phone and pretend to be checking texts so you can avoid eye contact.

There's no getting away from these people — as Therese's experience proves, they're everywhere, even in convents full of nuns. She quickly mastered the art of dealing with difficult people and learning to empathize with them.

Perhaps this is because early in her life Therese herself was the toxic person.

Contrary to her reputation, Therese was born with a violent nature. Her mother said, "She flings herself into the most dreadful rages when things don't go as she wants them. She rolls on the ground as if she's given up hope of anything being right again. Sometimes she's so overcome that she chokes." She herself admits in her autobiography Story of a Soul that her temperament could easily have led her to grow up to "become very wicked," if she hadn't had such good parents who helped her overcome it."

Seek your true value

"Toxic people are relentlessly negative. They find something they don't like, either true or made-up, and focus on it. The prioress, for example, decided Therese was lazy and continuously drove that point home. After a while, you can't help but wonder if all the criticism is correct because if you're told something repeatedly, even if it's completely inaccurate, the steady stream negativity takes a toll after a while.

Therese solved this problem by ceasing to care what her detractor thought and seeking her value from within. She decided to do her work quietly, without drawing any attention to herself. She did her work to fulfill her own sense of self-worth and as a way of honoring God. In fact, she often gave others credit for the work that she actually did because she knew it would make them happy. When she stopped caring whether the prioress noticed or called her lazy, she was suddenly free of the negativity."

Perfect your ability to love

It's easy to love family and friends, but it's hard to love that person who shows no redeeming qualities whatsoever. Therese speaks of a nun for whom she had a natural dislike and how she realized that, because love is an action and not a feeling, this was the perfect person to teach her to love better. Remember, Therese herself had once changed as the result of the patient love of her parents, so she knew the power of loving someone who seems unlovable.

She says, "I tried to do as many things for her as I could, and whenever I was tempted to speak unpleasantly to her, I made myself give her a pleasant smile." After a while, she reports that her feelings truly began to change.

In the end, a toxic person can only affect you as much as you're willing to be affected. As Therese shows, there's always another choice. It may be difficult or even seem impossible, but her own personal example reveals that even the most toxic person has the potential to become a saint." <https://aleteia.org/2017/10/01/how-to-deal-with-that-toxic-person-in-your-life-according-to-st-therese-of-lisieux/>.

These words are a challenge for each and every one of us. Let's all work during this Lenten season to identify a minimum of one person with whom we struggle and overwhelm them with kindness.

Thanks and God bless you!

Yours in Christ,

Lent

ARCHDIOCESAN LENTEN REGULATIONS

“For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.”

(John 3:16-17)

The Church has always helped us fulfill these words of Jesus by prescribing very definite penance for all Catholics, so that we too might have Eternal life. Accordingly, the Pope and the American Bishops have outlined obligatory fast and abstinence as follows: Ash Wednesday (February 22, 2023), all Fridays of Lent and Good Friday (April 7, 2023) are days of abstinence (refraining from meat) for all Catholics from age 14 onwards. On these two days, fast, as well as abstinence, is also obligatory for those from the ages of 18-59. Abstinence means refraining from meat. Fast means one full meal a day, with two smaller meals and nothing between meals (liquids are permitted). No Catholic will lightly excuse himself or herself from this obligation.

Feast of Saint Patrick (March 17, 2023) falls on a Friday during Lent this year. Feasts of the Church are meant to be a day of celebration and rejoicing, so on this Friday, March 17, 2023, the faithful of the Archdiocese of St. Louis are dispensed from abstaining from meat should they choose to celebrate the Feast of Saint Patrick.

Ways to Help With Fish Fry

1. Volunteer! First and foremost, volunteers are needed to staff the event each week. Please visit SignUp Genius to volunteer. We appreciate your service! The SignUp Genius link is on the home page of the website at www.sjiparish.org.

2. Drop off desserts! Pre-packaged desserts will be accepted in the Corpus Christi Center on Thursdays and Fridays preceding each Fish Fry between 7:30am-3:30pm. Due to health department regulations, home-made items may not be accepted.

RCIA Rite of Sending and Rite of Election

St. Joseph Parish is blessed to have nine men, women, and children who have been preparing to receive the sacraments of Initiation, Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Eucharist or to be received into the Catholic Church. On Sunday, Feb. 26th we had the Rite of Sending, the parish celebration that sends catechumens and candidates to the Cathedral Basilica for the Rite of Election and the Call to Continuing Conversion.

The rite of election or enrollment of names is the recognition of God's choice to call the catechumens for immediate initiation into the church. Archbishop Mitchell Rozanski recognized them as the Elect. The candidates, already baptized in another Christian church, were presented to Archbishop Rozanski in the Call to Continuing Conversion.

Please continue to pray for and welcome those who will become our newest Catholic members.

STEADFAST

FORWARD IN HOPE

STEADFAST IN FAITH

Jesus, You call us to pray, fast and give alms.
We, your people in the Archdiocese of St. Louis, thank You for Your call this Lent to grow steadfast in our faith.

In our Archdiocesan journey,
may we stay close to the Word and grow in virtue,
so that we may find mutual affection for one another as we embrace the plan for the future of the Archdiocese.

Strengthen us with the discipline of prayer,
aid us in fasting from negativity and self indulgence.
Stir through the Spirit, a generosity for the needs of others so that we may grow in charity.

As we journey through these days of Lent,
may we seek the power of the Spirit
to grow through your transformative Love, Lord.
Amen.

ARCHDIOCESE OF ST. LOUIS

In the Gospel Jesus is transfigured and a voice from heaven said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased: Listen to Him." Do we listen to Jesus when He asks us to take care of our brothers and sisters who are suffering? The Passion Narratives

Presenter: Mark Etling, PhD

Saturdays March 11, 18, 25 & April 1
10 am – Noon

The passion and crucifixion of Jesus are at the heart of the Christian faith. We remember and reflect on them every year during Holy Week. But what's less widely known are the differences in the Passion narratives in each of the four Gospels. Each Passion narrative has its own depiction of Jesus, and its own theological emphasis. In this four-part series we will take a close look at each of the Passion narratives as we journey through Lent in anticipation of Easter Sunday.

40 Cans for Lent – Because Hunger Has No Season

The Knights of Columbus invite you again this year to participate in 40 cans for Lent. What is 40 cans for Lent? It is a program designed to help fight hunger, an opportunity to take a small sacrifice and turn it into a big difference in the lives of others. The program is simple: Collect one can of food per day during the 40 days of Lent, which begins on Ash Wednesday. Drop off your cans at any time throughout the Season in the vestibule at church.
