FROM THE DESK of
FR. DAN SHAUGHNESSY, PASTOR

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The last year has been full, to put it mildly. We are living in a new reality in the Archdiocese of St. Louis, as we have gotten past the announcement of the All Things New parish realignments; as a result, we are happily working with St. John the Beloved Parish, also in Imperial. Additionally, we have achieved many milestones here at St. Joseph. Our Wiles Field renovations are drawing hundreds to play in CYC sports. Our newly renovated Little Friends of St. Joseph preschool is a shining example of what it looks like when we trust in the God the Father's plan for us here at St. Joseph, even when there are obstacles. Thanks to all of you for your support and generosity.

And so, each year the Archdiocese asks us to present a written financial report (facing page) to our parishioners after the conclusion of the fiscal year on June 30th. I also would like to share a different set of numbers: those that illustrate the good works of the parish, all made possible through the gifts of time, talent, and treasure offered by our parishioners.

As of the fiscal year ending June 30, 2023:

- We had 2022 registered households in the parish.
- 86 new members of the church were baptized.
- 85 second-graders made their First Communion.
- 83 students made their Confirmation.
- Enrollment at St. Joseph School continues to be very strong with 335 in grades K-8 and 81 in Pre-K3/Jr. K.
- Our PSR program served 211 children.
- Our RCIA program brought 9 adults into full communion with the Church.
- The St. Joseph Athletic Association offered 9 different programs with approx. 1300 children participating.
- Sr. Christine's Food Pantry serves on average around 400 families per month, a number that has increased nearly 60% from a year ago.

Thanks for all you do to empower these ministries!

Yours in Christ,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Fr. Dan Shaughnessy". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

November 12th, 2023
Thirty-Second Sunday
in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel Jesus challenges us to "stay awake" by taking time to seriously look at ourselves, the priorities of our lives, and how we are growing spiritually. Pray for our wonderful priests here at St. Joseph. At this "stay-VERY-wake" time in world history, they know that staying silent on an issue would cause souls to stray into darkness; while speaking Christ's truth will agitate egos who cozy up with the forces of darkness. From a worldly point of view, it's a no-win situation for them. But from a Godly point of view, our priests at St. Joseph speaking Christ's truth is victory. Please pray for them today so they may continue challenging us to "stay awake", as defined by God's truth, and not by mankind's lack thereof. Thank you for helping us, help those in need around us!
