31ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“As for you, do not be called ‘Rabbi.’ You have but one teacher, and you are all brothers. Call no one on earth your father; you have but one Father in heaven. Do not be called ‘Master’; you have but one master, the Christ. The greatest among you must be your servant.” - Mt 23:8-11

FROM THE DESK of
FR. DAN SHAUGHNESSY, PASTOR

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As we have just celebrated All Saints' and All Souls' Days, I think it's important for us to pause and reflect on both the beauty and at times the "heaviness" of this time of year. As we commemorate those who have died and as we pray with those who are nearing death, grief can often times accompany this season of the year. The temperatures are dropping. The hours of sunlight in the days are diminishing. And there is often an overwhelming feeling of a kind of darkness, emotional, spiritual, psychological, etc. This is normal and I daresay it's good for us as followers of Jesus to contemplate the last things. It's important for us to have a sense of our mortality and the fact that earth is not our final destination.

With that said, I recently came across the following reflection:

For this reason, it is very significant and appropriate that, after the feast of All Saints, the liturgy makes us celebrate tomorrow the commemoration of all the deceased faithful. The "communion of saints," which we profess in the creed, is a reality that is constituted here, but which will be fully manifested when we see God "as he is" (1 John 3:2).

It is the reality of a family united by profound bonds of spiritual solidarity, which unites the faithful deceased with those on pilgrimage in the world. A mysterious bond, but real, nourished by prayer and participation in the sacrament of the Eucharist. In the Mystical Body of Christ, the souls of the faithful meet, surmounting the barrier of death, pray for one another, [and] realize in charity a profound exchange of gifts. With this dimension of faith is also understood the practice of offering prayers for the repose of the deceased, in a special way the Eucharistic sacrifice, memorial of the Pasch of Christ, who has opened to believers the entrance to eternal life. (<https://www.catholic.org/featured/headline>)

May we all embrace the beauty of this time of year in our prayers and thanksgiving before Almighty God!

Yours in Christ,

WHAT TO EXPECT IN ADORATION

Why do I come every week for Eucharistic Adoration. As we heard in the past Sunday Gospel, "Love God with your whole heart, soul and mind." How can I love someone if I do not KNOW them, meet them, talk to them, listen to them. In adoration I can come as I am to give Jesus my self just as I am – no falsehoods or masks. He loves me for being humble. I am so grateful for His many graces to me and to my family. I never stop thanking Jesus for His bounty. Our family always needs something, too. Many health issues seem to pop up each week. I need Jesus' strength and encouragement to keep on keeping on. If I remain silent, He will talk to me and encourage me and advise me of what to do in my life right now.

I bring my prayer books, rosary, journal, if I am moved toward a specific way to pray on a given day. There are always special intentions and problems in our country, too, for which I pray.

I welcome each of you to visit Jesus and ask Him what you should do.

If you want to come at a specific time at St Joseph Parish Chapel, please call me:

in Ordinary Time

When we keep our focus on God and serve one another with true humility, God exalts us into His loving truth. "Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted. Being exalted by humans often comes with a frustrating expiration date. Being exalted by God is something totally different. Sharing your wealth humbly with the poor helps to orient yourself in the direction of that joy!

A NOTE OF THANKS

In October 2023, a neighbor in need reached out to our St Vincent DePaul Society for help on a delinquent water bill. She had recently lost her job due to child care issues, but was soon to start a new job. The water had been shut off and we were able to get her caught up and have service reconnected. She sent the follow email:

"I just wanted to say thank you so much, not just for helping me but countless others also. Your organization has honestly saved me a few times over from tragedies, homelessness, and predicaments that could result with my children being taken away (such as having no utilities). I'm usually not battling such hardships, and the couple times I have, the strongest option I had was to pray. God knows my heart and intentions are good, and I needed help only He could give. Each time he brought me to St Vincent DePaul. I wish there was a way for me to word my appreciation, but there isn't. The only thing is that I know you and all Vincentians will have a very close seat to God once we all go, and all of you deserve it!" Of course, this appreciation goes even more strongly to the supporters of SVdP's work.
