FROM THE DESK of
FR. DAN SHAUGHNESSY, PASTOR

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Render unto to Caesar what belongs to Caesar. Render unto God what belongs to God.

In this passage:

Jesus' enemies saw an opportunity to put Jesus on the spot in front of His followers. In verse 17, they say to Jesus, "Tell us, then, what you think. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?" (ESV). It was a trick question, and they knew it. If Jesus answered, "No," the Herodians would charge Him with treason against Rome. If He said, "Yes," the Pharisees would accuse Him of disloyalty to the Jewish nation, and He would lose the support of the crowds. To pay taxes or not to pay taxes? The question was designed as a Catch-22.

Jesus' response is nothing short of brilliant: "But Jesus, aware of their malice, said, 'Why put me to the test, you hypocrites? Show me the coin for the tax.' And they brought him a denarius" (Matthew 22:18–19, ESV).

The denarius was a coin used as the tax money at the time. It was made of silver and featured an image of the emperor with an inscription calling him "divine." The Jews considered such images idolatry, forbidden by the second commandment. This was another reason why, if Jesus answered, "Yes," He would be in trouble. His acceptance of the tax as "lawful" could have been seen as a rejection of the second commandment, thus casting doubt on His claim to be the Son of God.

With the coin displayed in front of them, Jesus said, "Whose likeness and inscription is this?" The Herodians and Pharisees, stating the obvious, said, "Caesar's." Then Jesus brought an end to their foolish tricks: "Therefore render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's" (Matthew 22:21, ESV). Upon hearing this, Jesus' enemies marveled and went away (verse 22).

When Jesus said, "Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's," He was drawing a sharp distinction between two kingdoms. There is a kingdom of this world, and Caesar holds power over it. But there is another kingdom, not of this world, and Jesus is King of that (John 18:36). Christians are part of both kingdoms, at least temporarily. Under Caesar, we have certain obligations that involve material things. Under Christ, we have other obligations that involve things eternal. If Caesar demands money, give it to him—it's only mammon. But make sure you also give God what He demands.

Caesar minted coins, as he had a right to do, and he demanded some coins in return, as was his right. After all, his image was stamped on what he had made. God has "minted" the human soul, and He has stamped His image on every one (Genesis 1:27). So give Caesar his due—the temporary stuff of this world—but make sure to give God His due: "Offer yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life; and offer every part of yourself to him as an instrument of righteousness" (Romans 6:13).

UNITED STATES CONFERENCE OF CATHOLIC BISHOPS

The Reception of Holy Communion at Mass

Those who receive Communion may receive either in the hand or on the tongue, and the decision should be that of the individual receiving, not of the person distributing Communion. If Communion is received in the hand, the hands should first of all be clean. If one is right handed the left hand should rest upon the right. The host will then be laid in the palm of the left hand and then taken by the right hand to the mouth. If one is left-handed this is reversed. It is not appropriate to reach out with the fingers and take the host from the person distributing.

The person distributing Communion says audibly to each person approaching, “The Body of Christ.” This formula should not be altered, as it is a proclamation which calls for a response of faith on the part of the one who receives. The communicant should audibly respond, “Amen,” indicating by that response his or her belief that this small wafer of bread, the wine in this chalice are in reality the body and blood of Christ the Lord.

Twenty-Ninth Sunday
in Ordinary Time

Please Don't Plead The Fifth on Fifth Sundays!

Each year typically has four months with a fifth Sunday. It is these fifth Sundays (next Sunday) where the needy in our community needs your extra boost from a 2nd collection. In the Gospel today Jesus says: "Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and give to God what belongs to God." When God is the center of our lives there is no problem with giving. Through your gift to St. Vincent de Paul you are helping your neighbor who is hungry, hopeless and frightened, to know that they belong to God too. Thank you for not "pleading the fifth" next Sunday when it comes to supporting St. Joseph's loving style of evangelizing. When it comes to witnessing to others, will you be silent?

St. Joseph Parish thanks our current bulletin advertisers who have decided to renew their ads this year, as well as the new advertisers who have come aboard. If you would like to get your business, service, or favorite charity added to the business directory page, there is still time.

Remember, the support of our advertisers makes it possible for our bulletins to be printed weekly at little or no cost to the parish. The bulletins are one of our primary means of communication and thus are vital to the parish. Please consider reciprocating the generosity of our advertisers by supporting them and the products and services they offer.

What A Special Time

To show our gratitude to our priests and pray for them during this month of the Holy Rosary and Clergy Appreciation Month! October gives us a great opportunity to thank our priests for all that they do – especially for bringing Jesus Christ daily to us in the Holy Eucharist. Thanks and prayers to all priests.

“Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our priests. Through them, we experience your presence in the sacraments. Help our priests to be strong in their vocation. Set their souls on fire with love for your people. Grant them the wisdom, understanding, and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus.” (USCCB prayer for priests)
