FROM THE DESK of
FR. DAN SHAUGHNESSY, PASTOR

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I came across this beautiful Gospel reflection, when contemplating the 21st Chapter of the Gospel of Matthew:

God Entrusts Us with What He Values: It's one thing to purchase an already functional property. It's quite another thing to purchase a rundown property and fix it up yourself. Once tidied up, the latter is worth much more to you. It has become the fruit of your sweat and blood. It is not simply a possession; it is a part of you. In today's Gospel, the landowner purchased the land and did the work himself to set up the vineyard before he handed it over to the tenants. When he entrusted it to them, he was not simply looking for a profit, but for someone to manage his vineyard. He valued it greatly, greatly enough to risk the life of his son. Christ has established his vineyard—the Church—and put it into our hands. Christ pays us the compliment of entrusting us with his work, with what he values. He not only gives us a job to do, but mysteriously puts the eternal salvation of other souls in our hands.

He Is Patient with Our Failures: The landowner did not stay around to supervise the tenants tightly. He did not even lay down rules or specify methods of cultivation. The master left the tenants to do their job as they saw fit. God is not a tyrannical taskmaster. He knows that laboring in his vineyard is hard work. At harvest time the master sent messenger after messenger. He did not become irate or condemn the tenants after one messenger had been abused and another mistreated. Rather, he sends them his son: he does everything possible to bear with their egotism and inspire them with his understanding and generosity.

God Is Equally Repulsed by Our Inactivity as with Our Iniquity: Because you are neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of my mouth (Revelation 3:15). The graver sin for the Pharisees was not what they decided, but rather their selfish and blind sterility in choosing not to decide. When Christ levies the sentence against the Pharisees, he does not say, Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that respects life (as serious as this is); rather, he chides them for not producing fruit. Note that the sentence is essentially equally severe: the one offense takes life, the other refuses to give it.

Conversation with Christ: Lord Jesus, your hands knew human labor, and you sanctified your life and the lives of those around you through your toil. Help me to see the virtue you teach. Help me to return all my talents to you by the work of my hands and mind. I want to be your working apostle.

Have a Blessed Week!

God bless you all!

Yours in Christ,

What A Special Time . . . .

To show our gratitude to our priests and pray for them during this month of the Holy Rosary and Clergy Appreciation Month! October gives us a great opportunity to thank our priests for all that they do – especially for bringing Jesus Christ daily to us in the Holy Eucharist. Thanks and prayers to all priests.

“Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our priests. Through them, we experience your presence in the sacraments. Help our priests to be strong in their vocation. Set their souls on fire with love for your people. Grant them the wisdom. Understanding, and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus.” (USCCB prayer for priests)
