FROM THE DESK of
FR. JONATHAN RUZICKA, ASSOCIATE PASTOR

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ at St. Joseph,

Our lives move in the direction of our strongest thoughts.

If we're honest, our lived experience is powerfully dominated by the thoughts that captivate our imagination. If I believe I'm "not enough," I will live with a perpetual heaviness. If I believe I'm "unlovable," I will isolate myself and refuse intimacy and vulnerability with others. If I believe my worth comes from what I accomplish or how productive I am, I will feel worthless if I'm unproductive or if my project falls apart.

Some questions to ponder: What do you think about yourself? Does that need to be redeemed? What are the thoughts, especially the negative ones, that seem to live rent-free in your head?

The Good News has something to say about this.

Our second reading is from the First Letter of St. John. I want to highlight my favorite verse from that passage: "Even if our hearts condemn us, God is greater than our hearts" (1 John 3:20).

Søren Kierkegaard, a 19th century theologian and existential philosopher, has a beautiful discourse where he reflects on this verse. He writes: "[St. John] does not say that God is greater than the most loving human being, but that he is greater than the heart that condemns itself. God and the human being resemble each other only inversely. ... The broken heart that condemns itself seeks in vain to find an expression that is strong enough to describe its guilt, its wretchedness, its defilement – God is even greater in showing mercy! ... As deep as this heart can lower itself, so infinitely more elevated is God's greatness in showing mercy! ... Even the most compassionate word that the most compassionate inwardness is able to think up would sound to this heart, which would not dare and would not allow itself to be comforted, like a new condemnation upon it – so infinite is God's greatness in showing mercy. ... God is greater than your own heart!"

Our hearts can often be masters of melancholy and self-reproach. Jesus has come to give us a new heart. Fr. Almiro Pichon, the spiritual director of St. Thérèse of Lisieux, once wrote to her in a letter: "Believe obstinately that Jesus loves you." Thoughts like this ought to captivate our minds and hearts. What would our lives look like if we lived from this personal declaration statement?

If your heart condemns you, God is greater than your heart. His tender love for us is beyond words. Jesus desires to lift the heaviness of shame and self-loathing that plague our souls. He wants to give us life in abundance (John 10:10).

We humans are all too good at putting ourselves down – God is even greater in showing us mercy. Perhaps this week, we can surrender any negative thoughts and receive the truth that God reveals. "Believe obstinately that Jesus loves you."

You are His – and He delights in you.

Respectfully yours in Christ,

ARCHDIOCESE OF ST. LOUIS

It's that time of year again, the Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA) has kicked off for the 2024 year.

The Annual Catholic Appeal provides us an opportunity to be Christ's hands and feet throughout the Archdiocese of St. Louis and support the mission of the Church For the Life of the World, sharing His love and mercy with those who need it most. Please consider supporting the ACA this year.

Our 2024 goal as a parish is $115,000

Your pledge cards can be found in the back of the church.

We thank you in advance for your giving!

DECLINE TO SIGN

Don't sign your rights and freedom away by signing an abortion initiative petition that would alter Missouri's Constitution!

Don't let lobbying groups and out-of-state special interests inject abortion politics where it doesn't belong and where it isn't wanted.

This petition goes too far for Missouri!

This extreme initiative petition could:

- Legalize abortion as a method of birth control and abortion after a baby can survive outside the womb.
- Allow unlicensed abortion clinics in your neighborhood – even near schools and churches.
- Give power to judges and the government to force Missouri taxpayers to fund abortions.
- Permit governmental intrusion in health care decisions made by parents with their children.

Don't be fooled! Signature collectors might tell you that it's for "women's health" or "reproductive rights" or "to restore Roe" —or that it's "pro-life" or "pro-choice" —or say anything to get you to sign. Don't believe them!

DECLINE TO SIGN any petition that lets lobbying groups and the government take away your rights and freedom! Tell family, friends, neighbors, coworkers and everybody to DECLINE TO SIGN.
The future of Missouri is counting on you!

For more information on Decline to Sign, contact Missouri Stands with Women at mostandswithwomen.org
