 If you have something for publication in the bulletin, please send it to bulletin@sjparish.org. The deadline is each Monday at noon.

Open Position: Middle School Math/Homeroom

Saint Joseph School has an open position for a middle school math/homeroom teacher. We are looking for candidates who wish to make a difference in the lives of our students by building upon our robust STEM curriculum. We believe that a strong foundation in STEM not only prepares students for further educational opportunities, but also for their future careers.

To apply, please send your cover letter and resume to Sr. Carol Sansone, ASCJ at csansone@stjosephimperial.org

FROM THE DESK of FR. DANIEL SHAUGHNESSY, PASTOR

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ at St. Joseph,

When praying the Breviary, I recently came across one of my favorite readings from the daily Office of Readings. It's by an ancient spiritual author, Diognetus. Ponder and pray with the words as you imagine your life today!

From a letter to Diognetus:

The Christian in the world

Christians are indistinguishable from other men either by nationality, language or customs. They do not inhabit separate cities of their own, or speak a strange dialect, or follow some outlandish way of life. Their teaching is not based upon reveries inspired by the curiosity of men. Unlike some other people, they champion no purely human doctrine. With regard to dress, food and manner of life in general, they follow the customs of whatever city they happen to be living in, whether it is Greek or foreign.

And yet there is something extraordinary about their lives. They live in their own countries as though they were only passing through. They play their full role as citizens, but labor under all the disabilities of aliens. Any country can be their homeland, but for them their homeland, wherever it may be, is a foreign country. Like others, they marry and have children, but they do not expose them. They share their meals, but not their wives. They live in the flesh, but they are not governed by the desires of the flesh. They pass their days upon earth, but they are citizens of heaven. Obedient to the laws, they yet live on a level that transcends the law.

Christians love all men, but all men persecute them. Condemned because they are not understood, they are put to death, but raised to life again. They live in poverty, but enrich many; they are totally destitute, but possess an abundance of everything. They suffer dishonor, but that is their glory. They are defamed, but vindicated. A blessing is their answer to abuse, deference their response to insult. For the good they do they receive the punishment of malefactors, but even then they rejoice, as though receiving the gift of life. They are attacked by the Jews as aliens, they are persecuted by the Greeks, yet no one can explain the reason for this hatred.

To speak in general terms, we may say that the Christian is to the world what the soul is to the body. As the soul is present in every part of the body, while remaining distinct from it, so Christians are found in all the cities of the world, but cannot be identified with the world. As the visible body contains the invisible soul, so Christians are seen living in the world, but their religious life remains unseen. The body hates the soul and wars against it, not because of any injury the soul has done it, but because of the restriction the soul places on its pleasures. Similarly, the world hates the Christians, not because they have done it any wrong, but because they are opposed to its enjoyments.

Christians love those who hate them just as the soul loves the body and all its members despite the body's hatred. It is by the soul, enclosed within the body, that the body is held together, and similarly, it is by the Christians, detained in the world as in a prison, that the world is held together. The soul, though immortal, has a mortal dwelling place; and Christians also live for a time amidst perishable things, while awaiting the freedom from change and decay that will be theirs in heaven. As the soul benefits from the deprivation of food and drink, so Christians flourish under persecution. Such is the Christian's lofty and divinely appointed function, from which he is not permitted to excuse himself."

Might we live in such freedom!

Yours in Christ,

Catholic Charities' Queen of Peace Center (QOP) provides family-centered care for women with substance use disorders, their families, and at-risk youth through treatment, prevention and education, and housing.

QOP addresses the full continuum of needs for families impacted by substance use and provides services that give women and children the best chance for success.

QOP Center is in need of supplies for the women being served there. To donate items or for more information, please contact your Parish Ambassador, Carroll Lee Schilly by email at carrolleeschilly@yahoo.com or by phone at 314-973-4042.

Annual Baby Bottle Campaign for Hand 'n Hand Women's Center in Barnhart

St. Joseph Parish will once again participate in a Baby Bottle Campaign to benefit Hand 'n Hand Women's Center in Barnhart.

Hand 'n Hand Women's Center offers caring, confidential, and free services, resources, and referrals to those confronted with unplanned pregnancies. Hand 'n Hand Women's Center is dedicated to helping women and men with unplanned pregnancies, post-abortion recovery, parenting classes, biblical abstinence counseling, adoption referrals, material assistance and more! They receive no government money or tax-payer funding so fundraising is critical.

Baby bottles will be available after all Masses on Mother's Day weekend, May 11 and 12. Take a bottle home and fill it with coins, bills, or a check and return it to the collection tub in the back of church by Father's Day weekend, June 15 and 16. Volunteers will deliver the baby bottle donations to Hand 'n Hand Women's Center.

BIRTHRIGHT OF HILLSBORO

Birthright of Hillsboro has provided us with Mother's Day cards. Please feel free to take as many as you need for the mothers in your life.

For more than 40 years, Birthright of Hillsboro has offered free, confidential help to the mothers in our community. They need funds to continue the work of ministering to pregnant mothers, easing the burdens of those faced with an unexpected pregnancy, pledge funds toward rent and utilities and helping provide the essentials for children under three. Please consider supporting Birthright as you honor the special women in your life this Mother's Day.

You can pick up these free Mother's Day cards as you leave church. We hope you will consider donating to their ministry.

Thank you!

PRINT & DIGITAL AD SPACES

The Support of Your Business is Greatly Appreciated

Josh Howard from LPi, our bulletin printer, will be securing new ads for our church in the coming weeks. It is the support of the business community that helps to make our church thrive. Please consider purchasing a print and/or digital ad as your participation makes our bulletin successful, and you attract customers!

Church bulletin advertising is a cost-effective way to advertise 52 times per year and show support for your local community; in turn, parishioners will support you!

Digital advertising allows your business to be front and center to anyone who visits a church profile page on ParishesOnline.com — that's approximately 500,000 page views per month!
