FROM THE DESK of
FR. DANIEL SHAUGHNESSY, PASTOR

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ at St. Joseph,

I asked one of our seminarians to share some words about their parish assignment experience this past year. And so, seminarian Jacob had some words to share on behalf of the men:

Sunday, April 28th is my last day on assignment here at the parish. As one of your seminarians for the year, I want to express my gratitude for the hospitality, warmth, and love you shared with me and my two seminarian brothers, Trey and Deacon Ryan, in the time we have been with you all. It has been amazing to be part of this community that invests in its clergy, sticks around post-Mass to engage fellow parishioners, and witnesses to your happiness and joy of life from living in communion with the Lord Jesus! It's been a tremendous blessing to be here and to get to know so many of you in the Sundays I have been here. I pray you all may continue experiencing the love of the Heart of Jesus and going deeper in your relationship with Him and with one another as the Body of Christ.

While I'll be heading back home to Indiana for the summer, I'll be continuing my seminary studies here in St. Louis until December of 2025. Feel free to write and keep up correspondence; I also won't be too far away, should you like to have me visit/grab a meal sometime.

With gratitude for a great year with you all,

Jacob M. Miller

Trey Niesen

Diocese of Kansas City in Kansas

Address: Kenrick-Glennon Seminary, 5200 Glennon Dr, St. Louis MO 63119

And of course, Deacon Ryan Martire will be ordained a Deacon on June 11, 1994 in Bismarck, ND.

God bless you all. These parishes are blessed to have seminarians. The seminary rightly trusts all of us with their formation.

Yours in Christ,

Catholic Charities’ LAMP program (Language. Access. Multicultural. People.) offers around-the-clock in-person and virtual interpreting and translation services – in courtrooms, hospitals, counseling sessions, and other critical settings – that empower people and build relationships by bridging cultural and linguistic divides. LAMP interpreters translate in more than 48 different languages, including American Sign Language (ASL).

LAMP offers a free Community Interpreting Line for limited English-speaking families in our community that is available 24/7 and 365 days a year. Call 1-888-260-3791 for assistance. If you have language skills and want to make a difference in your community, interpreting and translation work ensures life-giving services are accessible. Annual Baby Bottle Campaign for Hand 'n Hand Women's Center in Barnhart

St. Joseph Parish will once again participate in a Baby Bottle Campaign to benefit Hand 'n Hand Women's Center in Barnhart.

Hand 'n Hand Women's Center offers caring, confidential, and free services, resources, and referrals to those confronted with unplanned pregnancies. Hand 'n Hand Women's Center is dedicated to helping women and men with unplanned pregnancies, post-abortion recovery, parenting classes, biblical abstinence counseling, adoption referrals, material assistance and more! They receive no government money or tax-payer funding so fundraising is critical.

Baby bottles will be available after all Masses on Mother's Day weekend, May 11 and 12. Take a bottle home and fill it with coins, bills, or a check and return it to the collection tub in the back of church by Father's Day weekend, June 15 and 16. Volunteers will deliver the baby bottle donations to Hand 'n Hand Women's Center.

Worldwide Marriage Encounter presents weekend experiences for married couples to rekindle romance, enhance meaningful communication, and deepen and renew commitment. Below are our upcoming Summer and Fall 2024 experiences. Sign-up now as space is limited! For more information or to apply, go to wwme.org, or call Terry & Eric Engholm at 314-649-7317.
