From the Desk of Fr. Jack Ruzicka, Associate Pastor

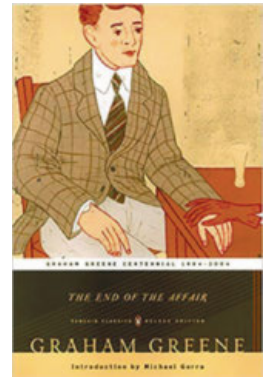

Dear parishioners of St. John the Beloved and St. Joseph

Part 2 of my recommended summer reading list continues!

3.) Look Out Below! A Story of the Airborne by a Paratrooper Padre by Francis L. Sampson. For those with an affinity for military history, you will enjoy the penetrating and vivid account by this Catholic priest who served as a chaplain for the airborne during WWII and Korea. Sampson holds no punches as he outlines the grueling dynamics of boot camp and the combat he experienced on the front lines. I believe all readers will appreciate the sensitivity of this man as he describes his wartime actions from ministering to the wounded, celebrating Mass on his jeep, and writing letters to the parents and wives of deceased soldiers. This is a powerful and moving read.

4.) The End of the Affair by Graham Greene. One of my favorite novels of all time. This is a difficult one for me to describe – you simply have to read it to find out. The protagonist, Maurice Bendrix, recounts the story of an adulterous affair he had with a woman named Sarah Miles. The drama ramps up as both characters wrestle with faith and belief in God. Maurice admits in the beginning of the novel, “This is a record of hate far more than of love.” A cynical atheist for much of the novel, Maurice comes to hate the God he feels has ruined his life. Ironically though...you need to believe in God if you want to hate Him.

About halfway through the novel, we receive privileged glimpses into the journal of the character Sarah Miles. Here is an excerpt: “I wish I knew a prayer that wasn’t me, me, me. Help me. Let me be happier. Let me die soon. Me, me, me. Let me forget me. Dear God, I’ve tried to love and I’ve made such a hash of it. If I could love you, I’d know how to love them. Teach me to love. I don’t mind my pain. It’s their pain I can’t stand. If I could suffer like you, I could heal like you. You’d taken my hate like You’d taken my disbelief into Your love, keeping them to show me later, so that we could both laugh.” If this doesn’t make you want to read this incredible novel, I don’t know what will!

5.) Mariette in Ecstasy by Ron Hansen. This is perhaps one of the most beautiful novels I’ve ever read. Hansen is a devout Catholic, a permanent deacon, and professor of creative writing at Santa Clara University in California. This novel recounts the story of a young girl, Mariette, who joins a convent. While there, she claims to receive the stigmata, the wounds of Christ’s passion. The community is split: half of the sisters believe she’s a mystic – a living saint among them. The other sisters, however, think she is a fraud. ... Which is it? Are her experiences real or contrived? Read the novel to find out!

Until next time, happy reading!
Respectfully yours,

FAREWELL PARTY

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults

Have you been thinking about becoming a member of the Catholic Church but aren't sure what to do? We'd like to invite you to explore this option by considering the Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCIA), formerly called RCIA. OCIA is the process in which adults enter the Catholic Church, or possibly return if they've been away for a long time and may not have received their First Communion and/or been confirmed. If you are interested in becoming Catholic or returning to the practice of your Catholic faith please contact Sr. Rosemary Buttice, ASCJ, at 636-464-1013 x106 or email at rbuttice@sjiparish.org. Inquiry sessions to help answer your questions will be held on Monday, August 5 and Wednesday, August 7 at 7:00 pm in the Corpus Christi Center Gathering Space. Also, if you know someone who may be interested in RCIA please invite him/her to the inquiry sessions or have them contact Sr. Rosemary. We look forward to meeting you!

ARCHDIOCESAN YOUTH CHOIR

Do you have a child who loves music? Would you like to see your child in a setting that encourages them to grow in their love for Jesus and in their love for music? They can do both while singing in the beautiful Cathedral Basilica of St. Louis! By filling out this survey you will be able to receive updates as communications are sent out for the restart of the Archdiocesan Youth Choir. Do not miss this opportunity to get your children involved in all of the most beautiful and enriching Archdiocesan events including: Ordinations, Chrism Mass, Christmas at the Cathedral, and more! Fill out the brief survey: <https://forms.gle/QqpJV7NGVvHLWD3T6>

July 14th Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In the Gospel today we see how Jesus sent his Apostles out two by two. From the beginning of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, members visit in pairs "two by two" those who are poor and needy in their homes. It is there, in the family setting, that Vincentians listen, offer humble advice, and render assistance. Have you considered answering the call to help serve the poor by joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul?
