Baptized in Christ in July of 2024

May the blessing of the Lord be upon them and may God watch over and cherish these children whom He has blessed with the grace of Baptism.

From the Desk of Fr. Anthony Yates, Pastor

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus said to the crowd, “Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life...” We can hardly blame the crowd for their shock at this statement — eating the Flesh and drinking the Blood of our Lord should cause us a bit of a shock. Yet how easy it is to show up at Mass Sunday after Sunday, receiving the Eucharist as simply part of a weekly routine.

If we really spent time contemplating the gift our Lord is offering us in this sacrament, we would be awestruck at the love and power in this gift. Through it, our Lord is giving us the very best He has to give — Himself. Not even the greatest theological scholar or the holiest of saints can fully understand this mystery.

Thankfully we don’t need to be a saint or a scholar to receive this gift. But we should do our best to receive the Eucharist with gratitude. And we can look to today’s readings to glean two fundamental principles for becoming better Christian stewards.

The Eucharist is the foundation for a stewardship way of life. Through His gift of the Eucharist, God fills us with His love and strength. This love and strength empower us to live as generous stewards — to be faithful to the ministries we serve in, joyful in material giving, and offer our very best to our families and secular work.

The Eucharist is the ultimate inspiration for a stewardship way of life. When we contemplate this gift of God, we will want to make a joyful return to Him. Mass will become anything but routine and we will live each day as His passionate disciples. ©Catholic Stewardship Consultants

Help Wanted

Do you have a green thumb? Would you be willing to give of your time and talents to help the Rectory flower beds? I am looking for a few people to help care for the flower beds at the rectory. There are many beautiful rose bushes that need some TLC. And keeping the weeds under control would be great too. If you think you might be able to help, please send me an email (anthonyyates@archstl.org).

Fr. Anthony Yates

“Take; this is my body”
—Mark 14:22

The presence of Christ in the Eucharist is real, true, and substantial.

“Jesus awaits us in this sacrament of love.” (St. John Paul II, Dominicae cenae, no. 3)

“It is called: Eucharist, because it is an action of thanksgiving to God.” (CCC, no. 1328)

Eucharist “makes present the one sacrifice of Christ the Savior.” (CCC, no. 1330)

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults

Have you been thinking about becoming a member of the Catholic Church but aren't sure what to do? We'd like to invite you to explore this option by considering the Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCIA), formerly called RCIA. OCIA is the process in which adults enter the Catholic Church, or possibly return if they've been away for a long time and may not have received their First Communion and/or been confirmed. If you are interested in becoming Catholic or returning to the practice of your Catholic faith please contact Sr. Rosemary Buttice, ASCJ, at 636-464-1013 x106 or email at rbuttice@sjparish.org. Also, if you know someone who may be interested in RCIA please invite him/her to the inquiry sessions or have them contact Sr. Rosemary. We look forward to meeting you!

August 18th Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us that "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him." This helps us remember that we become the body of Christ in a world that needs His presence. Please help with your daily prayers and if possible, contributions to our neighbors in need via our Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

4:30 Sunday Lectors Needed!

Are you interested in proclaiming the Word of God at weekend Masses?

We are looking to add a few individuals to our Sunday 4:30 pm Mass rotation.

If interested, please contact Emily at ekopff@sjparish.org or 636-464-1013 x108.

BULLETIN SUBMISSIONS

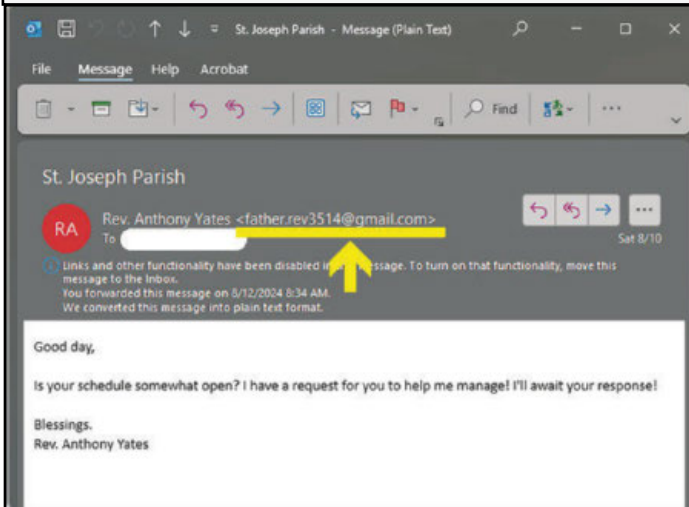

If you have something for publication in the bulletin, please send it to bulletin@sjparish.org. The deadline is each Monday at noon.

Junk Email Reminder

It didn't take long for spammers to start sending fake emails in the name of "Rev. Anthony Yates." Please be reminded that Fr. Yates, like Fr. Shaughnessy before him, will not be sending you emails asking for favors.

Also, note that the sender email address is NOT Fr. Yates'. This is always a clue!

Guide Book & Directory Advertising Opportunity

We have contracted Guide Book Publishing to publish a Guide Book & Directory for our parish that will be updated and delivered directly to your homes. The book is being provided at no cost to the parish. Local businesses are being solicited to advertise in the book. If you own or manage a business and would like to find out about advertising in our book, please call the Parish Office at 636-464-1013. Recent survey results by Guide Book Publishing show that 92.1% of families would rather patronize a Guide Book & Directory advertiser over a non-advertiser. It will "pay" to advertise in our new Guide Book & Directory.

Contributions to St. Vincent dePaul

Please note that if you are writing a check to St. Vincent dePaul, please make it out to St. Vincent dePaul instead of St. Joseph Parish to make it easier for bookkeeping! Thank you!

St. John the Beloved Disciple Parish

2024 Football Boosters

St. John the Beloved Disciple Parish runs a very successful Football Booster program each year and this year they are inviting St. Joseph parishioners to participate. Cards are now available for you to purchase and sell to others. The cards are available in the Parish Office during office hours. Cost is $25 per ticket. There will be $18,000 awarded over the 18 weeks of the NFL season. You don't need to know anything about football; card combinations are random and based on the results of the weekly football scores. For more information, contact either Kim Johnson or Rachel Schoenberger in the parish office at 636-464-1013.

Catholic Charities of St. Louis is dedicated to providing compassionate care and support to individuals and families in need across the community.

Queen of Peace Center (QOP) is a ministry of Catholic Charities that provides family-centered care for women with substance use disorders, their families, and at-risk youth through treatment, prevention and education, and housing.

QOP addresses the full continuum of needs for families impacted by substance use and provides services that give women and children the best chance for success.

Donations of some clothing and personal items would be appreciated. More information can be found at ccstl.org, or by contacting your Parish Ambassador Carroll Lee Schilly by email at carrolleeschilly@yahoo.com or by phone at 314-973-4042.
