Order of Christian Initiation of Adults

Have you been thinking about becoming a member of the Catholic Church but aren't sure what to do? We'd like to invite you to explore this option by considering the Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCIA), formerly called RCIA. OCIA is the process in which adults enter the Catholic Church, or possibly return if they've been away for a long time and may not have received their First Communion and/or been confirmed. If you are interested in becoming Catholic or returning to the practice of your Catholic faith please contact Sr. Rosemary Buttice, ASCJ, at 636-464-1013 x106 or email at rbuttice@sjiparish.org. Also, if you know someone who may be interested in RCIA please have them contact Sr. Rosemary. We look forward to meeting you!

From the Desk of Fr. Anthony Yates, Pastor

Participate in a Corporal Work of Mercy

“If a brother or sister has nothing to wear and has no food for the day, and one of you says to them, “Go in peace, keep warm, and eat well,” but you do not give them the necessities of the body, what good is it? So also, faith of itself, if it does not have works, is dead.”
James 2: 15-17 St Joseph Edition of the New American Bible

I am edified by the outreach of our parish, especially by the work of Sr. Christine’s Food Pantry and the St. Vincent de Paul Society. We now have another opportunity to serve our brothers and sisters in need. Many of you know, as part of the St. Louis Archdiocese reorganization All Things New, the archdiocese was divided up into three regions called Vicariates. Each Vicariate was assigned a priest called the Episcopal Vicar. St. Joseph Parish is part of the Southern Vicariate and Father Michael Lydon is our local Vicar.

Father Lydon is passionate about serving the poor and underserved, especially the homeless, who are now referred to as the “unhoused.” Father Lydon has invited St. Joseph Parish to be part of the new ecumenical ministry called The James II Project that serves the unhoused and underserved of our area. Currently, The James II Project is serving a hot meal, providing hot showers, and providing an opportunity for the unhoused and underserved to do a load of laundry every Tuesday at the Salvation Army located at 3740 Telegraph, Arnold, MO 63010. Father Lydon’s goal is to offer an additional day each week, Thursday, by one of four Catholic Parishes in the Southern Vicariate, with St. Joseph being one of these parishes.

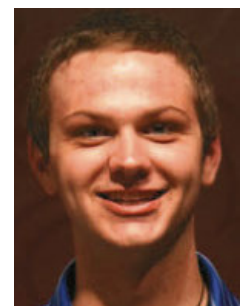

Our Parish is slated to cover the 1st Thursday of each month. We are looking for parishioners who are willing to seek the Face of Christ in our unhoused and underserved brothers and sisters. Workers will need to arrive between 9:00-10:00 am and will finish around 1:00 pm. If you feel called to this effort, please contact parishioner Cathy Pfeil at 618-972-9066 or email her at cathypfeil1020@gmail.com for more details.

Welcome to our New Seminarian

I am happy to announce that Andrew Ficken from our Parish has entered formation at Kenrick-Glennon Seminary. We should all be extremely thankful to God for Andrew saying “yes” to the Lord in this call to priesthood and I ask that you please pray for him as he begins his journey. We will mainly see him around church when he is home for breaks, but please know that your support of Seminarians is greatly appreciated. Here is a short introduction from Andrew.

I became a parishioner at St. Joseph about two years ago. I am beginning my propaedeutic year in Pre-Theology at Kenrick Glennon Seminary. I felt a call to the priesthood from a young age, but never felt ready to take this big step until now. I was born and raised in St. Charles and attended the Academy of the Sacred Heart for grade school. I then went on to attend DeSmet Jesuit High School. I studied Theology in college with a minor in Catholic Studies and graduated in 2022. I then thought the Lord was calling me to be a Campus Minister and Theology teacher. I did both at St. Mary’s South Side Catholic High School for the past two years. I was placed there as a part of the Billiken Teacher Corps, and with this I earned a Master of Arts in Teaching on the Catholic Ed track. Throughout all of this I continued to think about a call to the priesthood and decided that it was time to enter seminary. I am very excited to begin my time in seminary formation. Know that I will be praying for all of you, and I ask for your prayers as well.

Fr. Anthony Yates

Hand 'n Hand WOMEN'S CENTER

Tiffany DeLapp, executive director of the Hand 'n Hand Women's Center, sent this expression of thanks:

"I would like to once again thank St. Joseph Parish for participating in our "Mother's Day" baby bottle campaign in 2024. The combined total of the money collected in the bottles is $6,168.54. Please share our sincere gratitude with your congregation for their generosity in supporting life.

As much as we appreciate the money that was collected in the baby bottles, we know that the most important part of this ministry is prayer. Just knowing that our volunteers and clients were being prayed for as the bottles were filled was an added blessing."

September 1st
Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Gospel today hits home closer than we might think. Do we keep the letter of the law and entirely miss the spirit of the law? Interior righteousness means a heart turned to God. Purity of heart is expressed in righteous living, and self-giving for the sake of His Kingdom.
