From the Desk of Fr. Anthony Yates, Pastor

24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus addresses His disciples saying, “Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.” We are Jesus’ disciples, and He is speaking those same words to us here and now.

Living a life of discipleship is not always easy. It requires us to be imitators of Christ — who suffered, died, and rose from the dead out of total love for each one of us. This means we are called to share in Christ’s sufferings by taking up our cross and following Him daily. But what does this look like in our day-to-day lives?

We can start by making a firm resolution to follow Christ today, here and now, and renewing that resolution each day when we rise. This requires time with Him each day — speaking and listening.

We should also strive to pick up our crosses each day with Christ by our side. Our cross might be suffering from an illness, fighting an addiction, a day of screaming kids, or a period where things just don’t seem to go our way. Instead of avoiding these sufferings or complaining about them, we are called to carry them with Christ, allowing Him to transform us through them.

If we live life constantly focused on us, we will ultimately lose ourselves, but if we surrender our lives for Christ and His mission, we will gain eternal life and become more alive than we could have ever imagined, “For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the gospel will save it.” This takes daily commitment and requires endurance in our faith, which can only be done through active discipleship.

Away from the Parish

I will be gone on a pilgrimage to Italy from September 16-27. This was a trip planned a year ago before I knew I was being assigned to St Joseph Parish. I am confident that in my absence, Father Ruzicka will be sure everything is taken care of. Please pray for me and my travels and know that you will be in my prayers as well. I return just in time for the parish auction on the 28th, so I’ll see you there.

In today's Gospel Jesus says, "If a man wishes to follow me, he must deny his very self, take up his cross, and follow in my steps."

The cross of Jesus and the crosses of the faithful ARE evangelizers of His loving Truths: the sick who bear illness with courage, the grieving who hope against hope, the dying who trust in the Resurrection, the suffering of our poor brothers and sisters who are hungry and otherwise lacking, but still trust in God's love! Come evangelize the love of our Savior's truths with us, for the benefit of those who are struggling.
