28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves,
"Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said,
"For human beings it is impossible, but not for God.
All things are possible for God." - Mk 10:26-27

Confessions Calendar Update:

Please make a note that there will be no confessions on Thursday, October 31, since it is Halloween.

From the Desk of Fr. Anthony Yates, Pastor

Catholics Care. Catholics Vote.

Over the past 60 years, political hysteria has made Americans increasingly bitter, divisive, and gloomy. With a 24-hour news cycle and endless, breathless reporting about the end of America as we know it, it is easy for Christians and people of good will to become part of the problem. It is not unusual for politics to become a source of division within families and churches, a no-go zone among friends and spouses, and even a flashpoint for physical violence among strangers whose discussions become altercations. Research shows that Americans are increasingly weary of the fighting, division, and worry that fuels both major political parties. That weariness is good. Humans were not meant to remain in a state of fear, anger, and crisis. This sort of thing is unhealthy, unholy, and unsustainable. As this year's political tempest rages on, we would do well to remember that certain core values must guide us as Catholic citizens of this great nation.

No politician or political party can save us or our country. Jesus is the only savior who can conquer the evil found in this world and in the human heart. Anytime we start looking to a candidate, political party or policy platform for salvation, we have started walking down the same road that ensnared Israel when they sought redemption through a king instead of God (1 Samuel 8:20).

No current political party perfectly or completely embodies our Christian values. In modern American politics, the stance of both the Republican and Democratic parties violate fundamental Catholic values on various issues and must be challenged by believers. Therefore, we should not pledge blind loyalty to an entire party platform or ticket. Our loyalty is to Jesus Christ and our core principles must come from his teaching, as revealed through the Scriptures and the teachings of the Catholic Church. When there is a conflict between Catholic teaching and political platforms, we must side with our Faith. While politicians will always be imperfect, Jesus promises that his Church will not error in matters of faith and morals (Mt. 28:18-20, Mt. 16:18; John 16, I Tim 3:14-15; and Acts 15:28, CCC 891)

As Catholic citizens, we should remember three things:

- 1. Respect for the dignity of each person is the core of Catholic social and moral teaching. This is our most basic principle.
- 2. We focus on the common good, not our own personal interests. We ask, how can we make the world a better place? Not, how can I improve my own personal situation?
- 3. We have a responsibility—a true obligation—to form our consciences and participate in the civic life of this nation.

Retreats

Next weekend we host two important retreats, the Women's ACTS and the Youth Ministry Fall Teen Retreat. A retreat is an amazing opportunity to deepen one's faith while spending time away from the routines of life. Please pray for our retreatants who will be participating in these retreats. I am thankful to everyone who makes these retreats successful.

WHAT WOULD AMENDMENT 3 ACTUALLY DO?

ALLOW ABORTION AT ANY TIME FOR ANY REASON

Amendment 3 would allow abortions for any physical or mental health reasons. This even allows post-viability, extremely late term abortions for treatable, temporary health concerns. Emotional health would justify an abortion when a child could survive outside the womb.

VOTE NO ON AMENDMENT 3

St. Vincent de Paul Bake Sale October 19-20

The St. Vincent de Paul Society of St. Joseph Parish is holding a home-baked goods sale in back of the church Saturday, October 19th after the 4:30 pm Mass and after all of the Sunday Masses, October 20th: 7:00 a.m., 8:30 a.m., 10:00 a.m., and 11:30 a.m. The proceeds from the sale will benefit the poor in the area.

The sale will be held in the vestibule of the Church after each Mass. People who like to eat goodies are needed to purchase. Volunteers to bake are also needed. Please bring your baked items to the quilting room in the front of the church between 12:00 and 1:00 pm Saturday, October 19th.

Doubt No More .....
I BELIEVE !

In 750 A.D. in Lanciano, Italy, a Basilian monk celebrated Mass with doubts about Jesus' Real Presence in the Eucharist. During the consecration, the host was changed into live Flesh and the wine into live Blood. To this day, both the Flesh and Blood are perfectly preserved and can be seen in Lanciano. Then, in 1970-71 a thorough, precise scientific investigation was done, which proved that the Flesh and Blood were of human origin. The Flesh was a piece of human heart and the blood had the characteristics of a man who was born and lived in the Middle East. Without a doubt, a miracle!

Eucharistic Adorers Needed....

Thursdays for an hour at 2:00 pm, 3pm, and 4:00 pm. For more information call Pat (573)310-3472 or Barb (314)732-2256.

Speaker: Kay Halfmann

Kay Halfmann is a mom of 7 children and a grandma to 7 (with one on the way!). Throughout her life, Kay has had many opportunities to surrender to God's will and mercy. She keeps a (mostly) positive attitude knowing and trusting in God's generosity. And He has never failed.

Kay and her husband, Paul, founded D:6 Ministries several years ago. They speak throughout the St. Louis Archdiocese and in the Midwest. Their presentations are to parents to encourage and empower them with the tools needed to help them build their Domestic Church. They use humor and real stories to teach the importance of prayer and forgiveness in the family.

Kay also works at St. Pius X Catholic High School as the Front Office Manager. In her free time, Kay enjoys time with her children, grandchildren and friends. She likes to read and watch mind thrillers on TV. And she never turns down a dinner out!

Enjoy breakfast with your friends and make new ones!
Invite a Friend to join you!
