31ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The scribe said to him, "Well said, teacher. You are right in saying, 'He is One and there is no other than he.'" And when Jesus saw that he answered with understanding, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." - Mk 12:32, 34ab

Catholics Vote

As we enter the polls on Tuesday, we are mindful of all that Our Lord and His Church teaches us. I highly encourage you to inform yourself of all the issues before us as we vote. Jesus came to bring a Gospel of Life into a world ruled by death. We, as the Mystical Body of Christ on earth, share the mission of Jesus Christ.

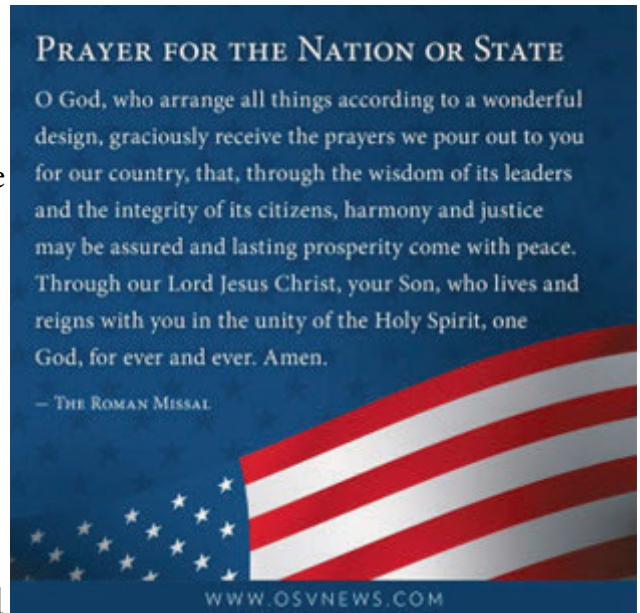

In a particular way, we must pay attention to Amendment 3 on the ballot. To support Amendment 3, or to remain indifferent, is to side with death. We are impelled by truth, charity, and a desire for all to be saved, to vote NO on Amendment 3 this November 5.

Also, please plan on praying for peaceful elections. Find time to come before the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament and ask Jesus to watch over our country. I encourage you to join us for Life Chain, this Sunday, November 3, from 12:30-1:30 pm as we stand for life and encourage a NO vote on Amendment 3. We also invite you to Eucharistic Adoration at the Chapel to take an hour of prayer from 9 pm Monday, November 4 to 9 pm Tuesday, November 5. We need many adorers for all the overnight hours. If you can take an hour of prayer, please call Mary Dixon at 636-467-2104.

Installation as Pastor

I hope you will be able to attend 10 am Mass this coming Sunday, November 10 as I am formally installed as your Pastor. Our Episcopal Vicar, Father Mike Lydon, will be the celebrant as I make the Profession of Faith and take the Oath of Fidelity. Thank you for your continued prayers and support as I shepherd our Parish. All are invited to coffee and donuts after Mass.

You are invited to the installation of

Fr. Michael Lydon, Episcopal Vicar for the Southern Vicariate, will be the Celebrant.

Our Saint Joseph School community recently gathered in church for an interactive (or living) rosary. As we recited each prayer, a student stood up reverently holding a candle forming a living rosary around the church. It was a beautiful, moving moment of peacefulness, faith, and unity.
