From the Desk of Fr. Anthony Yates, Pastor

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's First Reading from the First Book of Kings, as well as the Gospel passage from Mark, both center on the actions of two seemingly poor and helpless widows who show themselves to be faith-filled and generous stewards.

In the eyes of the world, particularly in biblical times when there was no life insurance or Social Security, these widows were weak and dependent on others to take care of them. They each found themselves in desperate situations — one in the midst of famine with a child for which to care, and the other clearly impoverished. Yet, each demonstrated strength and generosity that distinguished them from those around them. From where did this strength come?

It came from knowing who they are, and Whose they are. These women must have known their security would not come from a good life insurance policy or connections to someone with a hidden storehouse of flour.

No, their security came from knowing they were daughters of the Most High God and from putting their faith in Him. They had no need to panic in the midst of natural disaster or cling desperately to their menial resources. Their faith in God set them free to trust Him when all seemed hopeless. Their faith kept them detached from material possessions. Their faith allowed them to be brave and generous, to think of others despite their own trials.

These women saw themselves as stewards, not owners, of the resources God gave them, regardless of how much or how little they had. And acting as stewards made them gracious, generous and mighty indeed.

National Adoption Month

November is National Adoption Month. Every year, the Respect Life Office joins with Good Shepherd Children and Family Services and the Office of Natural Family Planning to coordinate a celebration for those who have been involved in any way with adoption, a gift twice given.

In the United States, about 120,000 adoptions occur each year. Many people, directly and indirectly, are affected by adoption:

- Women seeking options for unplanned or crisis pregnancies
- People and couples seeking children to complete their families
- Foster families and agencies involved in the placement and protection of children
- Children who have been adopted

Olive Wood Religious Articles

On the weekend of Nov 23rd & 24th Mary & Khader Abu Sada, a Catholic couple from the Bethlehem- Holy Land will be visiting our parish to market olive wood hand-carved religious articles hand made by the Christian artisans in the Holy Land.

This sale is to strengthen the Christian presence in the city of Bethlehem the birthplace of Jesus and the surrounding areas. All proceeds will go directly to the Christian families and the artisans who are working in this type of hand carvings. They are going to display all kinds of olive wood religious art works such as Nativity scenes, Crucifixes, figures, rosaries, etc., which are unique and not usually found in religious stores. These crafts make wonderful presents for all occasions especially for Christmas.

Our Fourth Grade classes under the guidance of Mr. Will Ruzicka demonstrated their STEAM skills at a recent Science Fair at SJS. Each year Mr. Ruzicka challenges these students with an Introduction to Engineering project in which they each create a unique invention. It may be one they create on their own or one that is a new spin on something that already exists. The class learns the process of engineering: brainstorm, design, build, test, fix, demonstrate. We are proud of our young engineers, their teacher, and their excellent work.
