From the Desk of Fr. Anthony Yates, Pastor

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's readings are in stark contrast to the joy of the holiday season that is fast approaching, warning us instead of dark times ahead and our inevitable judgment day.

The first reading from the prophet Daniel describes a time “unsurpassed in distress since nations began” and warns that “many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake; some shall live forever, and others shall be an everlasting horror and disgrace.” The second reading, from Hebrews, speaks of Christ who “waits until his enemies are made his footstool.”

However, when we firmly establish for ourselves as individuals — as a family and as a parish that we will give to God the first and best portion of our Time, Talent, and Treasure — the warnings we read in the Scriptures today should be no cause for alarm. In fact, we can view these words as encouragement — “Keep Calm and Steward On,” no matter what comes our way.

One of the blessings of a stewardship way of life is that in challenging times, whether in our homes or workplaces or even our beloved Church itself, we can take great comfort in knowing we have a concrete plan to keep our priorities in proper order. And, when we put God first in all aspects of our lives, we will experience the peace that He gives that surpasses all understanding.

©Catholic Stewardship Consultants

Thank you!

It was a blessing to be with so many of you this past weekend as we celebrated my installation as your Pastor. I am grateful to all who made the Mass and reception possible. I am grateful for all your kind words of congratulations and continued prayers. Know of my gratitude for all your support. I look forward to shepherding you in this journey towards the Kingdom of God.

Immaculate Conception

The next Holy Day of Obligation will be on Monday, December 9. This is different from what your calendar might say, but it will now be a Holy Day of Obligation. The reason for this has to do with information from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. Earlier this year, Bishop Thomas J. Paprocki, Chairman of the USCCB's Committee on Canonical Affairs and Church Governance, wrote to the Vatican seeking clarification about the obligation to attend Mass when a holy day of obligation in Advent, Lent, or Easter falls on Sunday and the Solemnity is transferred to Monday. In a memo to the U.S. bishops dated Thursday, October 10, Bishop Paprocki communicated the Vatican's response: “the feast must be observed as a day of obligation on the day to which it is transferred.” Considering this new directive, the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, Monday, December 9, 2024, is to be observed as a holy day of obligation. So please take time to attend Mass this day in honor of Our Lady.
