BULLETIN SUBMISSIONS

If you have something for publication in the bulletin, please send it to bulletin@sjparish.org. The deadline is each Monday at noon.

From the Desk of Fr. Anthony Yates, Pastor

Second Sunday of Ordinary Time

Today's Gospel reading from John recounts the familiar story of the wedding feast at Cana when Jesus launched His public ministry by performing His first miracle at his mother's request. Amid the feast, the Blessed Mother gave the servants instructions that are equally applicable to us modern-day stewards, saying, "Do whatever He tells you." Jesus gives the servants a simple and seemingly mundane task, telling them to fill some stone jars with water. They did what He told them to do. And Jesus used their obedience in the accomplishment of that simple task to perform His first miracle, turning the water into the choicest wine.

Our Lord didn't have to include those servants in order to perform this miracle — He chose to. And today, 2,000 plus years later, He still chooses to include us in the performance of His miracles through our cooperation with Him in using the gifts and talents He has given us. What a privilege! Let us take care to listen to our Blessed Mother: let's examine our lives this week to see if we really are "doing whatever He tells us" cooperating with God to make the best use of the gifts He has given us for the benefit of those around us. If we all take this call seriously, He will perform miracles in our families and our parish.

Staff Changes

There have been some additional changes happening at the Parish Office that I wanted to share with you.

Sean Feltz has informed me that his last day with us will be January 26. Sean recently bought a new home in Wentzville, MO. As you can imagine, the commute would be a lot each day. Sean has done much to help grow our youth ministry programs and build other outreach events in the newer role of Apostolic Mission Director. He also provided music for Sunday Masses.

In the interim, as I work on evaluating all the pastoral needs of the Parish, Father Ruzicka will oversee youth ministry programming with the support of our volunteers. I am confident that we will still be able to provide ministry to the teens of our Parish. As far as the music goes, Pete Buncher will remain as the 10 am Mass musician and also provide music at the 4:30 pm Sunday evening Mass.

Kathy Larson has also informed me that her last day with us will be January 31 as she moves into retirement. Kathy has served most recently as our Director of Communications, ensuring that we have a weekly bulletin along with many other communication and technology efforts, especially at the School. She was also involved in the opening of the Corpus Christi Center.

I will begin working on a search for a new communications staff member. In the interim, the bulletins will be produced by our Secretary Kim Johnson. Please continue to send bulletin information as you normally have.

Please help me thank these employees for their service to our Parish.

January 19th 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

In the Gospel today, at the wedding feast in Cana, Jesus reveals himself to his disciples and they began to believe in him. Everyday, God also gives us signs of His love so we also can respond in faith and trust. Your gift to St. Vincent de Paul becomes a sign of God's love to those who are suffering and you give them reason to believe and to trust.

St. Louis Review Subscriptions

It is time to renew your subscription to the St. Louis Review, the official newspaper of the Archdiocese. Please use your envelope in the packet or online giving account to make your offering to cover the cost of the subscription. The suggested offering for one year subscription is $35. That's just 70 cents a week! By sending in your subscription renewal, it helps the parish as we are assessed a fee by the Archdiocese for all households to receive the paper. If you prefer not to receive it, the only way to do that is to please return your envelope clearly marked, "CANCEL" on the front or contact the Parish Office. This will help the staff update the records.
