From the Desk of Fr. Anthony Yates, Pastor

Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel, taken from the sixth chapter of Luke, Jesus offers a very challenging, seemingly impossible approach to daily life. "Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. To the person who strikes you on one cheek, offer the other one as well, and from the person who takes your cloak do not withhold even your tunic." It makes one want to say, "Seriously, Lord?" And He doesn't stop there. Jesus adds, "Give to everyone who asks of you, and from the one who takes what is yours do not demand it back."

It seems so unfair! That is, unless we look at this way of life from a stewardship point of view. Then, not only does it seem doable (though challenging), but it also actually makes perfect sense. A steward understands clearly that all he has and all that he is — his very life — is a gift from God given to him from an unfathomable abundance of love. This changes everything! This means "my" cloak, "my" tunic, "my" money, and time — all of it ultimately belongs to God. He has entrusted these things to each of us in love to use for His purposes and His glory.

Does this mean we are to be passive "doormats" to anyone who wants to take advantage of us? Certainly not. Jesus explains this in the next verse of this passage when He says, "Do to others as you would have them do to you." There is nothing wrong with loving oneself since God loves us and has made us in His own image and likeness. Jesus is simply asking that we also approach others, and the sharing of our gifts, with this same attitude. He is giving us a definition here of real love, a steward's love!

Congratulations

Our Parish is blessed to have two students selected as Archbishop May Service Award winners. Josephine Ludwig represents Nerinx Hall and Leavitt Coleman represents St. John Vianney High School in this annual award. The Archbishop May Service Award was established in 1994 in honor and memory of former Archbishop John May, who embodied his coat of arms' motto of "Co-Workers with the Lord" with his own outstanding leadership and service. The award recognizes one student from each of the 24 Catholic high schools in the archdiocese for their extraordinary service. The award aims to encourage all young people to dedicate themselves to lives of service. Congratulations to Josephine and Leavitt.

Pilgrimage

Anyone interested in going on a pilgrimage in 2026? I am thinking of putting together a trip and want to see where you might want to go. If we get enough interest in talking about this, I'll put together a couple of times when we can meet to discuss the possibilities. Send me an email or stop me after Mass if you are interested.

Thank You

This Sunday we say goodbye to Pete Buncher who provided music at 10:00am and 4:30pm Sunday Masses. We thank Pete for his years of service to our parish and wish him well in his new work in parish ministry more near his home in St Charles. In the meantime, you will see various musicians filling in as I continue to discern how to best fill the roles for music at the Liturgy. Thank you for your understanding during this time of transition.

February 23rd
Seventh Sunday in

In the Gospel today, Jesus gives everyone the challenge to: "Love your enemies...Give to others in need...Do to others as you would have them do to you... Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful." When these things seem insurmountable, He shows us the way. But your heart, mind and soul must yearn for that deliberate and intentional stance towards Christ's ways. Are you perpetually yearning?

Statement of the Missouri Catholic Conference on Abortions Resuming in Missouri

We are saddened that abortions will resume in Missouri after the recent judicial ruling that abortion clinics do not need to be licensed by the state. The legalization and deregulation of abortion will harm women, children, and families.

The Catholic Church in Missouri will strive to increase advocacy for policies that uphold the dignity of all human life, protect the vulnerable, provide support for those in need, and continue to combat the forces behind the culture of death. For those women and men who have been and will be wounded by abortion, the Church will continue to provide true hope and healing.

We will continue to educate the faithful on the inherent dignity of all, as each individual is a child of God, and endeavor to make resources available to those in need. We will also work with lawmakers to craft prudent legislation to protect the welfare and dignity of pregnant mothers and their unborn children.

Let us continue to pray and work for a greater recognition of the gift of each and every human life in our society.

We are pleased to offer a Lenten series entitled
Seven Deadly Sins—Seven Lively Virtues.

Join Bishop Robert Barron for a challenging presentation of Seven Deadly Sins, those great spiritual blocks that inhibit our flourishing in relationship with God and with one another. Pride, envy, anger, sloth, avarice, gluttony, and lust are presented as patterns of dysfunction within us that lead to unhappiness. However, Bishop Barron shows us how to counteract those seven sinful patterns through a conscious process of opposition which are the ‘seven lively virtues.’ The seven lively virtues offer antidotes to each sin and help set us on the right path to healing and happiness.

Sessions will be held in the Corpus Christi Center on Wednesdays from 11:00 am to 12:00 noon.

Sessions and dates:

- February 26: Pride & Humility
- March 12: Envy & Admiration
- March 19: Anger & Forgiveness
- March 26: Sloth & Zeal
- April 2: Avarice & Generosity
- April 9: Gluttony & Asceticism
- April 16: Lust & Chastity
