ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL
BUILD MY CHURCH

ARCHDIOCESE OF ST. LOUIS

Christ's boundless mercy compels us to act. The Annual Catholic Appeal provides us an opportunity to be Messengers of Hope throughout the Archdiocese of St. Louis and support the mission of the Church, sharing Christ's love with those who need it most. This week, we are launching the Appeal in our parish.

Please consider supporting the Annual Catholic Appeal this year. You can pick up your pledge card after Mass or make a gift online at aca.archstl.org.

From the Desk of Fr. Anthony Yates, Pastor

Second Sunday of Easter/Sunday of Divine Mercy

Today, the Second Sunday of Easter, is Divine Mercy Sunday. Our Gospel reading from St. John is often called the story of “Doubting Thomas” but the passage involves so much more than the encounter with the skeptical apostle. It is rich with lessons of Christ’s mercy to all, including an encouraging word from our Lord especially for us, His modern-day disciples.

While Thomas traditionally takes all the bad rap for his doubts, we see that none of the Apostles were at their best when Christ first appeared to them after His resurrection. They were actually in hiding, cowering behind a locked door, paralyzed by fear and doubt. But Jesus appeared right in their midst in spite of the lock on the door. Was it to rebuke them for their lack of faith? Quite the contrary.

He comes on a mission of mercy. He comes to offer them peace and the restoration of their relationship with Him. And even more, He commissions them to become ministers of His mercy, by giving them authority to forgive sins. At that moment Christ gives to all of us the supreme gift of mercy — the sacrament of Reconciliation. What a precious and powerful gift!

This Sunday is a perfect time to reflect on how well we make use of this gift. Do we really appreciate its healing power? Could we become better stewards of this gift by going to Confession more often? We must also reflect on how well we extend mercy to others as Jesus did to Thomas that day. Let’s commit ourselves to becoming faithful disciples and stewards of Christ’s mercy. We will be those very ones to whom Jesus gave a “shout out” during His encounter with Thomas: “Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed” — in His merciful love.

Annual Catholic Appeal

Christ’s boundless mercy compels us to act. The Annual Catholic Appeal provides us an opportunity to be Messengers of Hope throughout the Archdiocese of St. Louis and support the mission of the Church, sharing Christ’s love with those who need it most. This week, we are launching the Appeal in our parish. Please consider supporting the Annual Catholic Appeal this year.

There are many in our communities who need someone to reach out and encourage them to believe in God’s love. We are called to be Messengers of Hope, sharing Christ’s mercy through our words and actions, offering peace, kindness, and compassion. Each year, the Annual Catholic Appeal allows us to come together as a family in Christ to share the Good News and reach out to the suffering, the doubting, and the weary throughout the Archdiocese of St. Louis.

Our gifts become hope and healing for the most vulnerable and spread His boundless love and mercy. Today, let’s embrace our call to be Messengers of Hope. You can pick up your pledge card after Mass or make a gift online at aca.archstl.org and learn more about the impact of your generosity.

Catholic Charities St. Louis Responds to the Year of Hope with the Pilgrims of Hope Challenge Coin

As part of the Archdiocese of St. Louis' Year of Hope, Catholic Charities is excited to introduce the Pilgrims of Hope Challenge Coin. This coin is a symbol of hope, meant to be passed on as a reminder of the good happening around us.

Each coin features the message, "I saw you spreading hope," along with the Catholic Charities logo, and a QR code linking to our Coins of Hope webpage. Here's how you can participate:

1. Receive a Coin: If you receive a coin, it means someone noticed your act of kindness and compassion.
Now, it's your turn to pay it forward!
2. Pass on a Coin: When you witness someone spreading hope, give them your coin and scan the QR code.
This will allow you to log the story of hope and share it with others.
3. Share Your Story: We want to hear your story of Hope, so don't forget to share your story on our landing page. And, if you want, tag us on social media using the hashtag #pilgrimsofhope.

Visit our website www.spreadhopeatl.com for more information and to share your story. Together, we can spread hope across the Archdiocese of St. Louis during this Jubilee Year of Hope!
