A ROMAN CATHOLIC PARISH IN THE ARCHDIOCESE OF ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI

From the Desk of

Fr. Anthony Yates, Pastor

Patriotism, Unity, and Our Call as Catholics

As our nation marks the 250th anniversary of the United States of America, we pause to give thanks to God for the many blessings bestowed upon our country. For two and a half centuries, generations of Americans have worked, sacrificed, and prayed in the hope of building a nation founded upon the dignity of the human person, freedom, justice, and opportunity.

As Catholics, our love for our country is expressed through the virtue of patriotism. Patriotism is more than pride in our nation; it is a recognition that God has placed us within a particular community and calls us to work for its good. The Catechism teaches that love and service of our country are part of our responsibility to the common good. We honor those who have served and sacrificed for our freedoms, and we seek to be good citizens who contribute positively to society.

At the same time, our faith reminds us that true patriotism must always be guided by charity and truth. In a time when division and polarization can seem overwhelming, Catholics are called to be instruments of unity. This does not mean that we all think alike, but rather that we recognize one another as brothers and sisters created in the image of God. Our unity is rooted not in politics or ideology, but in our shared dignity and our common destiny as children of God.

As we celebrate this milestone anniversary, let us pray for our nation, its leaders, and all its people. May God grant us the wisdom to seek what is right, the courage to work for justice, and the grace to build bridges of understanding and peace. May the virtues of patriotism and unity help us become a people who reflect the values of the Gospel and witness to Christ in our communities.

May God continue to bless our nation, and may He guide us toward a future marked by faith, hope, charity, and unity.

Daily Prayer for America 250

By Cardinal Raymond L. Burke

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, King of Heaven and Earth,
I place today my nation, the United States of America, into Your Heart pierced for love of us.

On the 250th Anniversary of the Declaration of Independence,
I acknowledge that true liberty is Your gift, and that our lasting homeland is the eternal Kingdom of God.

Under the mantle of Our Lady of Guadalupe, Patroness of the Americas, and through the intercession of her Immaculate Heart,
bless my homeland anew,
purify her from sin,
and guide her leaders in truth, justice, and peace,
so that she may safeguard all human life,
respect the integrity of marriage and the family,
and honor the practice of religion.

Reign in my home and in my nation.
Draw every heart into communion with You,
that Your truth, love, justice, mercy, and peace may triumph in America and throughout the world.

Amen.

THE ORATIONS AT MASS

The Three Presidential Prayers of the Liturgy

In the Catholic Church, orations are the three specific, presidential prayers spoken aloud by the priest on behalf of the congregation during Mass.

The Collect (Opening Prayer)

Said at the beginning of Mass, this prayer "collects" the individual prayers of everyone in the congregation into a single, unified petition. It changes daily to reflect the specific liturgical season, feast day, or saint being celebrated.

The Prayer over the Offerings

Spoken right before the Eucharistic Prayer, this asks God to accept the gifts of bread and wine the community has brought to the altar.

The Prayer after Communion

Offered after everyone receives the Eucharist, this prayer asks that the spiritual graces of the sacrament bear fruit in the daily lives of the faithful.

July 5th Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel we hear Jesus say: "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest." Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul brings peace and comfort to those who are overwhelmed with life's burdens. Who do you know who is a comfort provider to neighbors in need? Does our Lord see us providing comfort?

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"For my yoke is easy, and my burden light." - Matthew 11:30

When we think of being good stewards, we may think that God is asking too much of us when He calls us to generously share our time, talent and treasure. However, we must remember that we are not "owners" of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has given us. All He is asking is that we give back a small portion, in gratitude, of what He has already given to us.

To request a Mass intention, please contact the parish office. The suggested stipend is $10 per Mass.
