A ROMAN CATHOLIC PARISH IN THE ARCHDIOCESE OF ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI

St. Joseph Parish

Fr. Anthony Yates, Pastor

The Beatitudes: A Saint's Way of Life

On All Saints Day, we celebrate the men and women who now share in the joy of heaven. Some are known throughout the world; many more lived holiness quietly—in their homes, workplaces, neighborhoods, and parishes. Their lives remind us that sainthood is not reserved for a few extraordinary people. It is the call of every Christian, lived faithfully in the circumstances of daily life.

Scripture Reflection

In today's Gospel, Jesus gives us the Beatitudes. They are more than beautiful sayings or ideals to admire from a distance. They show us the way of life Jesus himself lived and invite us to follow him. "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven." To be poor in spirit is to know that we need God. It means loosening our grip on the belief that we can manage everything by ourselves and learning to trust the Lord. We practice this when we turn to God in prayer, ask for help, or make room in our lives for what matters more than possessions, status, or success. Jesus also says, "Blessed are the meek." Meekness is not weakness. It is strength guided by patience and love. It can look like listening before answering, speaking gently when we are frustrated, or choosing not to return an insult. And "Blessed are the peacemakers" calls us to do more than wish for peace. We can become peacemakers by refusing to spread gossip, helping relatives or friends move toward reconciliation, and working to bring people together instead of deepening division.

Application in Our Lives

The Beatitudes can seem to run against the world's usual measures of happiness. The world often praises power, comfort, and getting ahead. Jesus calls blessed those who are humble, merciful, sincere, and committed to what is right—even when that path is difficult. The saints did not all live the same kind of life, but they took Jesus' teaching seriously and tried to put it into practice in their own circumstances. All Saints Day, then, is both a celebration and an invitation. We give thanks for the saints who have gone before us, including the holy people whose names may be known only to God. And we ask for grace to follow their example—not by trying to imitate every detail of their lives, but by becoming more like Christ in our own. We can begin with one Beatitude this week: one act of mercy, one patient response, one generous choice, or one step toward peace. In those ordinary acts of faithfulness, we walk the road of the saints toward the joy God promises.

National Vocation Awareness Week

November 1st-7th

Today begins an annual week-long celebration of the Catholic Church in the United States dedicated to promoting vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life through prayer and education, and to renew our prayers and support for those who are considering one of these particular vocations. Please pray for those in our Parish who are discerning their vocation!

Liturgical Living

November 1st is when the Church celebrates All Saint's Day, a joyous time to honor every saint in heaven, those who we know, and those who we don't. A great way to celebrate this solemnity is by reading about the lives of the Saints and seeing how you can live by their example. November 2nd is another major day in the Church, it is the commemoration of All Soul's Day, a solemn day to pray for the souls in purgatory. A good practice to implement with you and your family is visiting a cemetery and praying for these poor souls. The Church grants an indulgence from November 1st-8th for those who pray for the dead, see the "Prayers with Partial Indulgences" pamphlet in the church for more details

November 1st: All Saints Day

In the Gospel today, we hear that the poor and suffering are especially blessed. As Blessed Frédéric Ozanam said, "The blessing of the poor is the blessing of God." Are you enveloped within that blessing? As you place your gift for our parish's Society of St. Vincent de Paul in the collection basket (or online), please pray for the blessing of the poor. Having five Sundays, November will be an extra blessing upon the poor (and you), as you commence setting aside a few extra dollars for the 5 th Sunday Special Collection in just 4 more weeks.

A word from: # Saint Joseph School

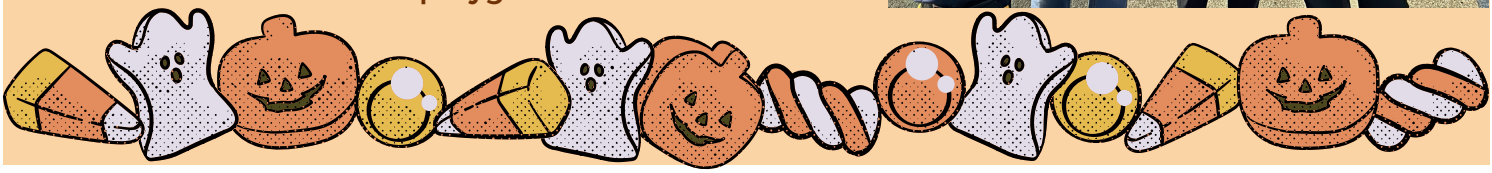

Dear Parishioners,
This week, our school community has been rich in faith, learning, and celebration!
On Tuesday, our 1st-grade students crafted their very own rosaries with Our Blessed Mother's Rosaries. The activity gave the children a wonderful sacramental to use both in class and at home as they learn to pray the Rosary. The craftsmanship is truly inspiring, and we look forward to having our priests bless them soon.
Our 8th graders also engaged in meaningful, biblically based discussions with our Seminarian, Quinton. They explored the Autumn Triduum, Heaven, Purgatory, and Hell, focusing on key Church teachings and learning how we pray for the faithful departed.
Students kicked off the Autumn Triduum on Friday with joyful Halloween class parties. We will complete this sacred triduum on Monday by coming together as a school for All Souls Day Mass.
Finally, a gentle reminder that Tuesday, November 3rd, is Election Day. Please remember to fulfill your civic duty and cast your vote!
Thank you for your continued prayers and support for our school community.
Blessings,
Dave Meschke

STEWARDSHIP

"Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted." - Matthew 23:12

The world celebrates people in the spotlight and those who have the most of everything. We think celebrity, money and possessions are the key to happiness. Yet, our world is filled with more loneliness, anxiety, and depression than ever before. The lives of the saints show that the key to a happy life are relationships. Relationships with God and each other. Trust is the foundation of any good relationship and humility is the seed of trust.
